America always has been Marxism's main target; it is the perfect ground for communism; a well developed and industrialized country, the necessary requirements for communism to flourish, they say. As years have passed, America has risen as the beacon of Liberty and Freedom. At the present it is the last fortress and bastion of freedom; the primary obstacle to world domination. Conquer America and the world is yours. Nowadays, Marxism with the help of Islam terrorist is at their closest realization of world domination dream, which make America their last target.

It is a necessity to have a brief description of communism to understand the master plan for conquering America.

Americans have been kept in the dark, too long. This has been done by design, to make one believe Marxism, aka Communism, is dead, buried and forgotten. The work done by the International Communism, masquerading as modern socialism, liberalism and so many others pseudonymous has been extraordinary. In 1974, a well known Russian author and dissident Alexander Solzhenitsyn, warned America with prophetic words. However, his message fell in deaf ears. But Solzhenitsyn was not alone, a number of others before him also predicted the goal of communism such as Igor Gouzenko, a top Russian spy, defecting during WW II and many others. My fellow countrymen, communism didn't start here with Barack Hussein Obama. It started much earlier than the introduction of the mockeries he is preaching. People, who suffered the brutality of communism, try to denounce this evil, but also without success. The "liberalism", with the help of conscienceless politicians and bias media kept them muffled. Now we are harvesting the consequences.

Communism and its real militants are passionate believers of "The end justified the means", Niccolo Machiavelli's principle. How can we forget the Hungarian population massacre in 1956 and the following horrors of 1957 and 1958, orchestrated by the Soviets and the Communist regime to suffocate a rebellion for freedom? This massacre was done, while the world contemplated this bestiality with impunity.

For communists time is not a deterrent it began in 1844, the year when Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels joined forces to launch "The Manifesto of the Communist Party" in 1848. For them achieve world domination is like playing a game of chess, but with unlimited time. They study the opponent, think and plan ahead. Attack and retreat as needed. Protect the king (idea), but sacrifice other pieces, including their best. Always keep in mind individuals do not count. The "check mate" is world domination, which is their goal.

Communism practice "Hegelianism", introduced by German philosopher Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, in early 1800. Only the rational is real, he said. Reality is achieved by means of logic. If it can be proved by logic, then it is real and changes can be made. Therefore, if changes are to be made then reality must be achieved. This has been the philosophical foundation of "dialectic materialism" and the exaltation of the state by modern communists. Remember, Hegelianism, dialectic materialism and Machiavelli's principle, are their trump cards.

Communism is always on alert, waiting to ambush America when opportunities arise. If no controversial problems existed, they develop one. They want people continuously agitated. It is necessary to maintain at all times an unrest climate. Read Marxism-Leninism and learn. Can we stop and prevent the spread of communism and its tentacles or are we too late? To stop and prevent such a fate, can only be done after an extraordinary determination of grandiose and nobility similar to the one displayed by our Founding Fathers when reaching Independence. Can the free men and women of this country protect the strength and healthiness of our Constitution refusing to succumb to the evils of Communism? Only time will tell.

We must recognize we are facing two of our enemies, Marxism, which we are harboring, and radical Islam militants. They are mortal enemies of our freedom and of our God given Rights. We have a President, Barack Hussein Obama; with all the indications of a well doctorate Marxist. We already know of his Islamic past influence by Islam, but unknowing to what degree.

Obama would accelerate the collapse of America, alongside those conscienceless politicians doing the necessary harm by dancing at the tunes of the flutes of powerful Marxists. Despite having no idea of what are they dancing to or why. Barack took the presidency lauding dreams and phony promises. One of his favorite's lauds was "spread the wealth". What a buffoon. The only thing Marxism has spread is "poverty", "lies" and "subjugation". Read history and learn. Another of his histrionics was "change". I question what change Mr. Obama. What you have preached is to "change" freedom, self determination and self respect to silent obedience, advocating for total government dependency by forcing all of us to accept bondage. All of those lauds are old repetitions from more eloquent Marxists and before your debut in this world. I'm watching with great sadness, the ugly future and devastation you are trying to sell to the American people. I know your kind. I have been thru it.

Communism adjusts to the circumstances as long as world domination stays alive. We must not forget their alliance with Nazi Germany in the 1930s supporting Adolf Hitler, a clear application of "Machiavelli's principle". The word "communism" has been associated with massacres and failures. Therefore, it is time for them to use new names, such as "Democratic Socialist of America" a term now surfacing. They will shelve "communism" and hide the past. But it will resurrect when confident they possess absolute control.

In Marxism, control of the press is imperative. Thru the press, fantasies and lies are injected. It is also the initiation of the brainwashing process necessary for human subjugation. Then government dependency starts cementing vassalage, while Freedom and Liberty begin vanishing, fading as a dream of the past.

Communism is control by an elite group. People are used as needed for a time only, and disposed off when their use is not longer in demand. Have you forgotten the Soviets notorious "purges"? Take your time and read the hundreds of books and articles written by ex-communist, and by people who revolted them. You will learn the naked truth, the failures, the massacres, and the destruction. You also will find a "Barack" in every place where communism has been involved. America, this blessed country, which has been called on to defend Liberty so many times, does not deserve these scoundrels.

It is up to you Americans, to learn what is developing in your country. It is up to you to choose between freedom, self-respect, self motivation, family and happiness versus bondage, sadness, hate, government dependency and self destruction. Don't let your God given Rights slip away. Freedom is a unique precious jewel, once stolen you cannot get it back. Too many people have given their life rather to live in bondage. For us to keep silenced would be profane. Now you are witnessing America "the beautiful ", maliciously and deeply wounded with a dagger in the heart. Don't let it succumb.

Those lacking understanding of communism cannot realize the dangerous waters America is navigating. However, for others, knowing communism and accepting its fallacies are incredible.

Long live America, the paradise of the free and the pedestal of the brave.

America, the main and last target.

America is collapsing. China is emerging. The collapse of America is happening by design. The Socialism-Marxism or any of the other pseudomonas is the culprit. Socialism, without any doubts has failed in every place in which imposed. But the contrary happen with capitalism. The best example is China.

China embraced Marxism-Leninism in 1919, but could not make any economic improvement. In 1949 a leader named Mao Zedong won, with a revolution and established a Communism regime. China then was renamed "People's Republic of China". Mao's revolution and severance from the Russian Marxism-Leninism yoke did not remediate the country's pathetic economy either. Despite the creation of a Communist Party, China's economy reached catastrophic proportions. Mao's was China absolute ruler; ruling with an iron claw. Millions of Chinese civilians encountered death due to famine created by his regime. Others were brutally exterminated at the hands of Mao's so called Red Brigades, which happened during the horrified Cultural Revolution lasting from 1966 until Mao's death in 1976.

After this horrific period several adjustments has been made by the Communist Party. They started slowly liberalizing their economy by introducing the "free enterprise" principle, converting China into a progressive capitalist society. However, the Communist Party supported by an immense military machine is still capable of maintaining his political dominance agenda. But this political preponderance is not as solid as it prenteds to be, with a possibility of disappearance within a relative short time. The proletarian population, as Marx and Engels would refer to, is finding out that capitalism, not socialism, is the one bringing progress and riches to their doors. On can safely predict, within twenty or less years, radical steps will take place in China to eradicate Socialism-Marxism. The Chinese population is realizing the enormous mistake committed when embracing communist. China, with very little doubt would become the strongest economy worldwide within those years.

The contrary appears to be the future of America, continuing the present path. We are caving into disaster. We are allowing unscrupulous, power hungry individuals destroy this blessed country. We are betraying thousands of patriots who fought and died for this land. It is sad to contemplate the gradual disappearance of freedom and the infamous introduction of Marxism, even though there has been a disaster in every other place. We are rewarding dishonesty and corruption. We are vilifying all those who profess individual rights, self respect and family values. The present administration is instructing Americans to be dependants and subordinates of the "New Class", as named by Milovan Djilas in his "Analysis of the Communist System". All of these and more is a well perpetrated design to destroy America. Yes folks, American are converting to Communism, step by step, masterfully done by the left and Barack Hussein Obama.

Analytically speaking three observations came to my mind. FIRST, the complete apathy by millions of Americans keeping silence to this assault; SECOND, the total ignorance by those voting for their own destruction and consenting to their own subjugation; and THIRD the fear by those, with a very few exceptions, in the political arena, especially the ones running for election, to denounce publically this atrocity and call it by their real names: COMMUNISM, TOTALITARIAN REGIME, VASSALAGE or other similar countless string of epitasis.

(OVER)

This country was and still is the envy of the world. This is the cradle of Liberty and the temple of happiness, a place where dreams transform into reality. I believe we are departing from all of that. It is noticeable how Americans are changing. Now Americans, with a few exceptions, are victims of fear and lack of confidence. They fear to lose the good things which they are enjoying; and lack the confidence to regain them, when lost. They feel very relax and comfortable with a naïve attitude, ignoring reality and thinking no damage would be done. Unfortunately the damage has been done, without having any idea of the danger they are ignoring. No question of what the left has discovered to intimidate the American people.

It is no secret that China is the beneficiary of what would happen to America, the one with the technology. They want to go back to those years where they then were the nest of civilization. They want to lead the world again. They want to be the dominant force but America is in their way. What should they do, conquering America by force or doing it gradually and peacefully? The first is out of the question. America is too powerful. It has been tried in the past and failed. The second is conceivable, within the near future. What matters is how to do it. They would try to cripple America's economy as much as they can, maneuvering its politics and wait for the collapse. Then, immediately after, jump and rescue it. Remember, China has to protect its investment. They want America, not destroy America.

However, in this second scenario, China found a "lucky charm". They found a Muslim by birth, a communist by heart, a Prince of fools by acting, who became President of United States of America by chance, named Barack Hussein Obama. Since the beginning Barack has shown his love for Marxism's principles, as he was trained for. His performance, overall, has been a blessing for China. They never dream to obtain such an unsolicited gift. Are Barack and his Communist associates, the ones responsible for the current America's economic muddle? Yes, without any doubt. China is a lucky bystander in this event. Nevertheless, China cannot hide the enchantment to see Barack manipulation of America. I wonder how history would describe Barack Hussein Obama performance; this should be fun to watch and see.

It is hard to believe the overwhelming amount of Americans, well-educated and portraying to be heroes, are accepting this assault on our nation. It is inexplicable. Many times I have heard an old quote whose author I cannot recall: "Every country has the government they deserve". This quote fits like a glove.

I do not ask any political figure to agree with my scenarios, if America falls. I am just asking all of them to tell the American people the enormous danger we are facing. Tell the truth, shake the fear, take the risk and become a leader. You will not be "political incorrect". You will be an American freedom lover, honoring this country's Founding Fathers and all of those who died for you to be free. America is collapsing. America's freedom is hanging by a thread and Barack Hussein Obama has the scissors. However, I might be asking too much to political figurines.

America the Main and Last Target

III

By Manny Martinez

October 12th, 2011

Frederick Engels, one of the “Father of Communism” in his 1847 work, “Principles of Communism”, insisted private property must be eliminated. However, he indicated this measure only would take effect when means of production were available in sufficient quantity and control by the State, out of the hands of the bourgeoisie and capitalists. A reason why highly developed countries would be easy targets to infiltrate. No question America, the main target.

No doubt Socialism/Communism is calling for elimination of private property. Engels identified private property as the main obstacle for the implementation of the Communism Revolution and his so called “Democracy”. He indicated the necessity of a progressive taxation to clear this hurdle. It is clear this is a must priority for any regime practicing Marxism. The present American administration is following Engels mandate with brilliant accuracy.

Education is another measure to be addressed under Socialism/Communism. Indoctrination to Marxism is imperative, must be injected to people. For this mechanism to begin, must starts with the children at early stage. Children education is totally and absolute government control. Parents are only caretakers, during the very early evolution of the child. The Marxism dogma mandates the State to be responsible for the formation of the child within the communism frame. Children are instructed and indoctrinated to be dependant of the State, They learn that is the State who controls their rights, which are granted or denied, as they please. In communism family does not exist, it is a thing of the past. Family brings tradition, which is in total conflict with communism dogma.

After personally experiencing and watch my native country assailed by communism I started inquires, to learn more, on how Communism operates and move. I have read a variety of essays, writings and others work. The work of Engels in his Principal of Communism reveals many interesting points. Engels work was the steering wheel for developing “Manifesto of the Communist Party” authored by Karl Marx, published in 1848. Communism is reluctant to get entangled directly in any leftist disturbance, disorder or rebellion. Even though, they instigate violence using left radical groups from outside, they take extreme care not to disclose any association. Relations with these groups are totally and emphatically denied. Communism uses those groups’ victims for propaganda purposes. They are labeled heroes, victimized by right wingers, capitalists, bourgeoisie and oppressors of the poor.

The practice of enrolling radical groups masquerading as hero’s pacifist was established by the Bolsheviks in 1919, when “The Third International” dubs it Communism International, or “Comintern” was convoked as general staff of world revolution. Even though this notorious Russian directory disappears many years in the past, their ideas and tactics, I believe still are in practice and much improved. This directory was used to infiltrate democracy worldwide and train communist militants. They spread Communism/Socialism all over the world using Marxism dogma. Latin-America was for many years and still is a major market; the end result Cuba, Venezuela, Bolivia, Ecuador and many others, all in route to communism and socialism totalitarianism

(over)

The Comintern was dissolved in 1943, by Josef Stalin, as a gesture to the Allies. However, by then the world was fully infiltrated. In 1947, after the Cold War sets and in 1946 started the Soviets takeover of East Europe, the Kremlin instituted a new international communist bureau called "Communism Information Bureau" aka Cominform. This bureau resurrected his predecessor practices and affairs until supposedly dissolved by Nikita Khrushchev in 1956. At that time, the damage was already done as planned. No question America, the last target.

Communism operates mainly in secrecy, reluctant to use the name communism for fear of rejection. Socialism, Liberalism, Humanism or more appealing names are used as alternative.

Communism with his Marxist dogma demonizes capitalism as a justification to introduce their so called "Democracy". They lie to the unfortunate population, exploiting their misfortunes. They lure the gullible into the yoke of slavery denying them the precious jewel of freedom, self respect and determination. They teach the population to idolatry their masters and to become helpless dependants of them.

Communism exploits and misleads the proletariat, offering false promises. They sell them fantasies, making them believe the proletariat is the one in control of the nation's means of production. They hide the fact that is the Communist elite, not the citizens or proletariat, who have the absolute power to control and dispose all the riches and fruit of the nation production. Communism transform the gullible proletariat into defenseless marionettes of the elite, leaving them at their mercy.

The lexical use of "socialism" and others, such as "spread the wealth, "changes" and a variety of different appealing lexicons is for manipulation of the gullible, giving the impression of equalization, but it is false; they are nothing more than palatable poison pills to convince people to enter the world of submissiveness.

In communism there is no tomorrow. Individuals live day by day, waiting for the next mandate to be fallowed and executed as ordered. Any vacillation or inquire could be interpreted as a rebellion, carrying severe penalties. Ask the millions who escape and survived.

Communism, the paradise of tyrants and dungeon of people is cementing in our land.

Communism no longer is coming, it has already arrived. It has to be either rejected or accepted. We must decide. What will it be? Only time would tell. As Patrick Henry would say "...give me Liberty or give me Death"
