

Please say NO to SB941. The government does not need to know who has a gun and what kind. That information can be wrongly used by our government and other governments that hack into our personal information.