ISSUES DISCUSSED:EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT:

BACKGROUND: The Common Core State Standards (CCSS) in English language arts and mathematics were adopted by the State Board of Education in October, 2010. They meet the requirement for standards leading to college and career readiness required by Oregon's No Child Left Behind waiver granted in 2012.

Since 1991, the state has used the Oregon Assessment of Knowledge and Skills (OAKS) to determine student progress toward meeting standards. For the 2014-2015 school year, Oregon moved to Smarter Balanced Assessments for English language arts and mathematics. In addition to the Smarter Balanced Assessment, students have multiple options (work samples, SAT, ACT) to demonstrate mastery of essential skills required to graduate. OAKS will continue to be used to assess science and social science until common standards are developed for those content areas.

House Bill 2655-A establishes the Student Assessment Bill of Rights, a list of rights for students and parents regarding statewide standardized testing. It also expands the existing right students have to opt-out of statewide standardized assessments until July 1, 2021.
