

Age-friendly Resources and Websites

Age-Friendly Portland www.agefriendlyportland.org

Portland is one of the original US cities to join the WHO Global Age-Friendly Cities Network. Learn about the partners involved, upcoming events and activities, ways to get involved and more. Check out the Portland Age-Friendly Action Plan which accepted by the Portland City council on Oct 2013.

AARP Oregon www.aarp.org/or

Oregon

Learn about what AARP is doing in Oregon and in your community. Find out about coming events. Get updates on our advocacy efforts at the federal, state and local levels. Hear from other members and get involved!

Livable Oregon Blog <http://states.aarp.org/tag/livable-oregon/>

What makes a community livable? What do neighborhoods need to help people of all ages live active, engaged lives? Livable Oregon is a blog written and curated by Oregonians that explores the features of age-friendly communities, the people who help create them, and what we can do to make our neighborhoods in Oregon a great place for everyone.

AARP Public Policy Institute www.aarp.org/livablepolicy

The Institute informs and stimulates public debate on the issues we face as we age. The Institute promotes development of sound, creative policies to address our common need for economic security, health care, and quality of life. The institute's website features research, reports and resources from AARP's housing, transportation and livability experts. Be sure to read about the new Livability Index that is slated to be released later this spring.

AARP Livable Communities www.aarp.org/livable

Curated for use by elected officials, policy makers, legislative staffs, community leaders and citizen activists, our website is a centralized, online repository of information and resources about age-friendly, livable communities.