To: Members of the Seventy-eighth Legislative Assembly

From: Dexter A. Johnson, Legislative Counsel
Steven A. Wolf, Chief Counsel, General Counsel Division, Oregon Department of Justice

Subject: House Bill 4133 (2014)—Revision of Statutes Due to Obsolescence

House Bill 4133 \(2014\), which became chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2014, directs the Legislative Counsel and the Department of Justice to review Oregon statutes to identify laws that are outdated, obsolete or duplicative of other laws and to prepare legislative measures to repeal or amend the laws as needed. Chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2014, requires preparation of an accompanying report that identifies the affected laws and describes the reasons why the laws are amended or repealed. This report must be distributed to members of the Legislative Assembly and made available to the public at least 90 days before the start of the 2015 regular legislative session. This document is an update to the report originally distributed on November 4, 2014. The report is available to the public on the Legislative Counsel website at <https://www.oregonlegislature.gov/lc>.

The bills prepared pursuant to chapter 101, Oregon Laws 2014, and the provisions contained in the bills are described below. The reasons why the laws are amended or repealed are also set forth below and as notes following each section of each of these bills.
