

Subject: HB 2655 Opt Out Bill

Good morning,

I feel strongly that parents should have the right to clear and transparent information about high-stakes testing, and they should be able to opt their child out of said testing for any reason.

Please remember my perspective as you participate in today's Senate Education Subcommittee work session, and as you continue to review HB2655!

Thank you,

Laura Randall | Sr. Business Process Tools Analyst | Global Company Planning
Columbia Sportswear | Mountain Hardwear | SOREL | Montrail
office: 503.985.1433 | email: randall@columbia.com