

Please vote against this bill. One of the unaddressed risk, in the coexistence strategy, is the issue of contamination after harvest. During transportation and processing materials frequently enter the environment, often far from the field of origin. Once GMO plants are growing on our roadsides, there is no way to prevent widespread contamination.

Vote No.

Dan McKenzie
Corvallis
I always vote

Sent from Xfinity Mobile App