PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIP CREATES NEW 3 TO PHD™ MODEL

Faubion School and Concordia University Build New Educational Model in Portland, Oregon

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Faubion School and Concordia University have been neighbors in education for 63 years, sharing 24 adjacent acres in Northeast Portland.

“3 to PhD is truly an exemplary model of vision and partnership. Once complete, this will be the FIRST OF ITS KIND in the nation to combine a public school with a private university’s teacher preparation program.”

 Dr. Nancy Golden, Chief Education Officer to Oregon Governor John Kitzhaber

WHAT IS 3 TO PHD™?

3 to PhD™ is a trailblazing educational model to create safer, healthier and more educated communities from early learning through Pursuing one’s Highest Dreams (PHD). The goal is to close the opportunity gap for the most vulnerable children and families.

3 to PhD™ restores school as the heartbeat of a community and includes: wrap-around services for children and families, early childhood education, health & wellness programs, STEAM (science, technology engineering, arts and math) educational opportunities, and one-on-one tutors, mentors and coaches from Concordia.

An extensive community engagement design process included neighbors, students, and educators. The new Faubion-Concordia campus is scheduled to open in Fall 2017.

“3 to PhD™ is an excellent model because it relies on PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS. It’s the sort of model that can and should be replicated.”

■ Charlie Hales, City of Portland Mayor

“Together, PPS and Concordia are co-creating one of the few such EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES of its kind in the nation. This is an exciting time for us.”

■ Carole Smith, Portland Public Schools Superintendent
