

Thank you! Additional information I forgot to add. The Oregon Humane Society has been deleting comments and blocking people in favor of banning declawing, including mine and others. Also, if they were a 'HUMANE' society, why are they promoting declawing of kittens? They deleted their pdf recently when it was brought up by The Paw Project. Declawing is a big business of crippling cats, anyone who supports declawing is in it for the money only.

LINK TO THE OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY DECLAW KITTENS PDF HAS BEEN DELETED AFTER THE PAW PROJECT MENTIONED IT IN THE FOLLOWING POST.

APPEAL TO OREGON HUMANE SOCIETY. Please use your influence and reputation to help pass a law that REALLY protects dogs and cats. HB 3494-A is flawed bill that allows declawing and devocalization to continue unchecked at the discretion of veterinarians. The Paw Project has passed 10 laws, since 2002, that truly ban declawing. We believe OHS cares about animals but are disappointed to find that Oregon Humane Society recommends the declawing of kittens: "If you do decide to have your cat declawed, we suggest that you have the surgery done at the same time she's spayed (or neutered, if your cat is a male)." Quote from OHS website <http://bit.ly/1HBnG5D>. Oregonians, please go to <http://www.pawproject.org/whatyoucando> to learn how you can help. [NOTE: The photo is an illustration. OHS does not recommend declawing of rear feet.]

Oregon Humane Society To note: yes, a few accounts have been banned from this page due to personal attacks on the OHS director. Personal attacks, bullying, making people feel threatened or unsafe, profanity, spam and the like will not be tolerated. This is expressed in the above post, and some of the banned parties have already been in direct email contact with OHS and we hope that constructive dialogue can continue there. Thank you.

Andrea Kalka I haven't seen many of the referenced posts so I can't judge if the content was inappropriate. However, in the end, my opinion regarding it is irrelevant. I know CtK's heart is in the right place and in the end, I am grateful to have a spokesperson/cat for animal rights.

Tess Ewart Well could Please explain how you were so threatened by City that banning was your only option? Seriously? Come on now.

Tracey Frankcom Criticism of her testimony is not bullying. She was rude and dismissive of the other agencies, groups, and individuals who have stood up in favour of a complete ban today. Anyone who is in doubt should review her testimony online here: http://oregon.granicus.com/MediaPlayer.php?view_id=6... (scroll to about the one hour mark)

Maggie Bowen City opposed their agenda. That's it.

Enoch Simpson They are afraid. They are banning because they know declawing is wicked. City is doing what is right. If you have a heart for animals than listen. Refuse to declaw. Anything else is barbaric and will not be tolerated.

Why did you block City the Kitty? I read all City's posts and could not find ANY behavior that you referenced as your excuse to block City. Please give back City's voice regarding the issue of de-clawing, Thank you.

Dear Oregon Humane Society and Sharon, Exec. Director of OHS, Today is a big day. We have an important step with the HB 3494 to totally ban declawing (and devocalizing) in the first state in America. An amendment (A5) is proposed and if accepted, it will totally ban those cruel and inhumane things, and if the bill is finally passed. Please help us today at the hearing and don't be afraid to think big and push for a total ban and not the incremental plan of 15 yrs that you believe is best. With your plan, too many kitties will have to go through so much pain and suffering in those 15 yrs. Let's do it now. Don't let small minds convince you that your dreams are too big! If you think big and work hard at making it happen, it will, and especially when it comes to things that are so inhumane and wrong like these are. Speak out today at the hearing and be heroes to say enough is enough and don't let the OVMA and AVMA intimidate you. Your support is crucial for this bill so please be the humane voice for kitties and dogs who have to suffer needlessly in the hands of veterinarians who took an oath to heal and protect animals from suffering, and lazy owners who don't want to take the time to train their cat or dog or trim their nails. Please, reach inside of your heart and think BIG! This is a golden opportunity for you guys to shine and go down in history as the humane organization that did the right thing and spoke out and added your name to such a positive milestone in cat history. The world is watching. ❤️

👍 Donna Drury likes this.

Oregon Humane Society 🌐 For personal attacks on the OHS director. Personal attacks, bullying, and posts that make anyone feel threatened are against our social media posting guidelines. City the Kitty's account was notified that this would be occurring prior to the ban. They have been engaged in email conversations with Sharon as well and can continue there if both parties so choose.
