Northwest Family Services is an award-winning, leading provider of creative services that reduce poverty.

Northwest
Family Services

We create changes within the communities we serve through a Theory of Change model.

Collective Impact:

- Common agenda
- Common goals
- Standard measurements

WHY?

The challenges are too big and no one person or group can do it alone – WE must work together!

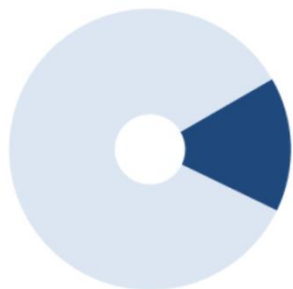

If poverty were a city in Oregon...

Oregon's Youth are counting on us!

Failure to Graduate High School Yields Serious Challenges for Oregon:

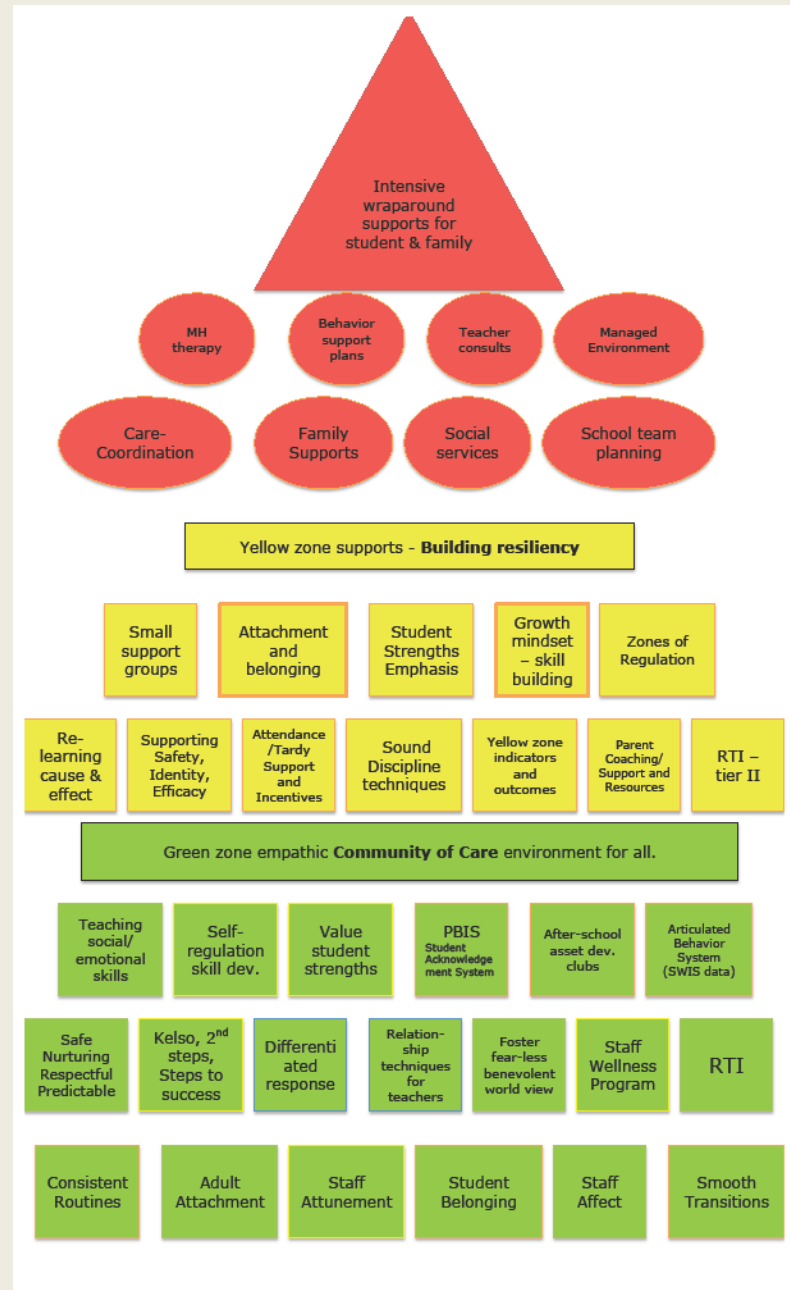

Using national cost estimates, in a single year, Oregon experiences over a $924 million direct fiscal burden as a result of their disconnection from school and work, as well as an almost $2.5 billion social burden imposed upon individuals, families, and communities.

Northwest Family Services

Northwest Family Services works with hundreds of partners annually in working to improve Oregon child well-being through:

- Red Zone Services
- Yellow Zone Services
- Green Zone Services

Northwest Family Services

- Drug Free Coalition
- PreventNet services in Clackamas County

GREEN ZONE SERVICES

Quick Fact: In 2014, Northwest Family Services graduated 90% of all students under case management while the entire State of Oregon only graduated 69% of all Oregon High School students.

YELLOW ZONE SERVICES

Quick Fact: The NWFS Peer Court program saves Oregon Taxpayers a conservative $25,000 each year, per youth. This represents the cost of a person in an Oregon prison. Collectively from over 600 youth who have successfully gone through peer court as participants, Peer Court has saved Oregon Taxpayers $15 million dollars!

- Evidence-based, skill-focused groups
- Restorative Justice peer court and truancy reduction
- Case management and mentor matching for children of incarcerated parents
- Family Resource Coordination and kindergarten readiness
- Parent education, coaching, and supports

- PreventNet in Clackamas County
- Case management and resource coordination for families with barriers

Suicide Is Preventable

Northwest
Family Services

Quick Fact: Sadly, almost 700 Oregonians kill themselves each year with nearly 100 representing teen youth. Thousands more, an approximate 16% or around 30,000 Oregon teens, report seriously considering suicide according to the Oregon Department of Human Services Health Division.

- Mental health support for youth who are screened for suicide ideation
- Navigation support for families involved in DHS
- Alcohol and drug treatment based at schools

- Non-profits are owned by no one, but belong to the community.
- Northwest Family Services is proof that Theory of Change works as we serve 20,000 people annually thanks to all stakeholders involved.

- We believe in treating all people with fairness, dignity, and respect.
- We utilize evidenced-based programs and services whenever possible.
- We believe sustainability is derived by data that proves our programs are making impacts within the communities served.
- We also believe solving the problems and challenges we seek to address must be supported by qualitative and quantitative information.
