

HB 3494-A contains unacceptable loopholes and will not protect dogs and cats. The bill would allow declawing and devocalization to continue unchecked in Oregon at the sole discretion of veterinarians. The bill is not a step forward for animals. Rather, it is a step backwards in the movement to protect animals from unnecessary harm.

Nicholas H Dodman BVMS DVA DACVAA DACVB
Professor, Department of Clinical Sciences
Tufts Cummings School of Veterinary Medicine
200 Westboro Road
N. Grafton, MA. 01536