

Stefanie burgoyne June 2 HB3494-A contains unacceptable loopholes and will not protect dogs & cats. The bill would allow declawing and devocalization to continue unchecked in Oregon at the sole descretion of veterinarians. The bill is not a step forward for animals. Rather, it's a step backwards in the movement to protect animals from unnecessary harm.