

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

The Circus Project 2014 Annual Report

The Circus Project / W: www.TheCircusProject.org / P: 503.764.9174 / E: info@TheCircusProject.org
A: 1420 NW 17th Ave. / Suite 388 / Portland OR / 97209 / U.S.A.

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

Milestones

2014 was an exceptional year for the Circus Project...

- Partnered with 7 social service agencies
- Operated 4 High Flyers programs
- Completed 3 Outreach Residencies
- Worked with 119 at-risk youth
- Hosted 4 community showcases
- Hired for 5 paid gigs
- Presented 1 sold out production
- Signed a lease on a beautiful new 4,184 sq. ft gym
- Grew capacity hiring a full-time Program Director and a part-time Program Assistant

"My girls have been struggling academically, but their involvement with the Circus Project has boosted their self esteem in so many ways... they just feel better about themselves!"

Christina Chan, Mentor - Friends of the Children

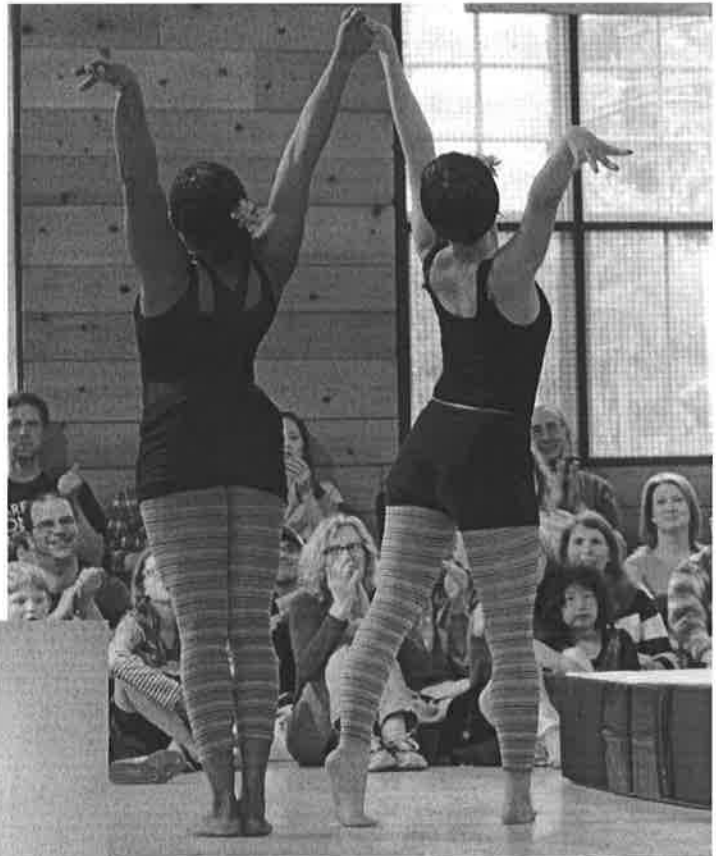

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

Public Classes

181 students engaged

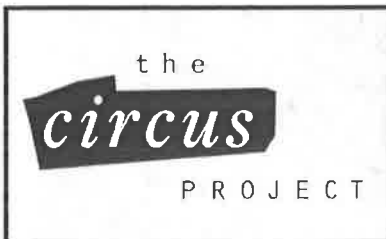

826 hours of classes

18 public classes

8 summer workshops

20 scholarships

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

Outreach

119 youth served

25% of High Flyers students self-designate as homeless

81% of outreach students receive free or reduced price lunch

High Flyers: 45 youth served

Self Enhancement Inc.

- Full service charter school
- 10 students
- 12.5 hours of training

New Avenues for Youth

- Homeless drop-in center
- 20 students
- 8 weeks of classes

Friends of the Children

- A non-profit mentorship program for at-risk youth
- 5 students
- An entire summer of aerial classes

Outside/In

- Social service agency addressing the needs of homeless and marginalized youth.
- 10 students
- Engaged youth from 4 separate social service agencies

Residencies: 79 youth served

Boise Elementary - SUN Program

- After school programming for low income youth
- 19 students
- 10 weeks of classes culminating in
- 1 school-wide talent show

Friends of the Children

- A non-profit mentorship program for at-risk youth
- 10 students
- 31.5 hours of training over 21 weeks

Native American Youth and Family Center

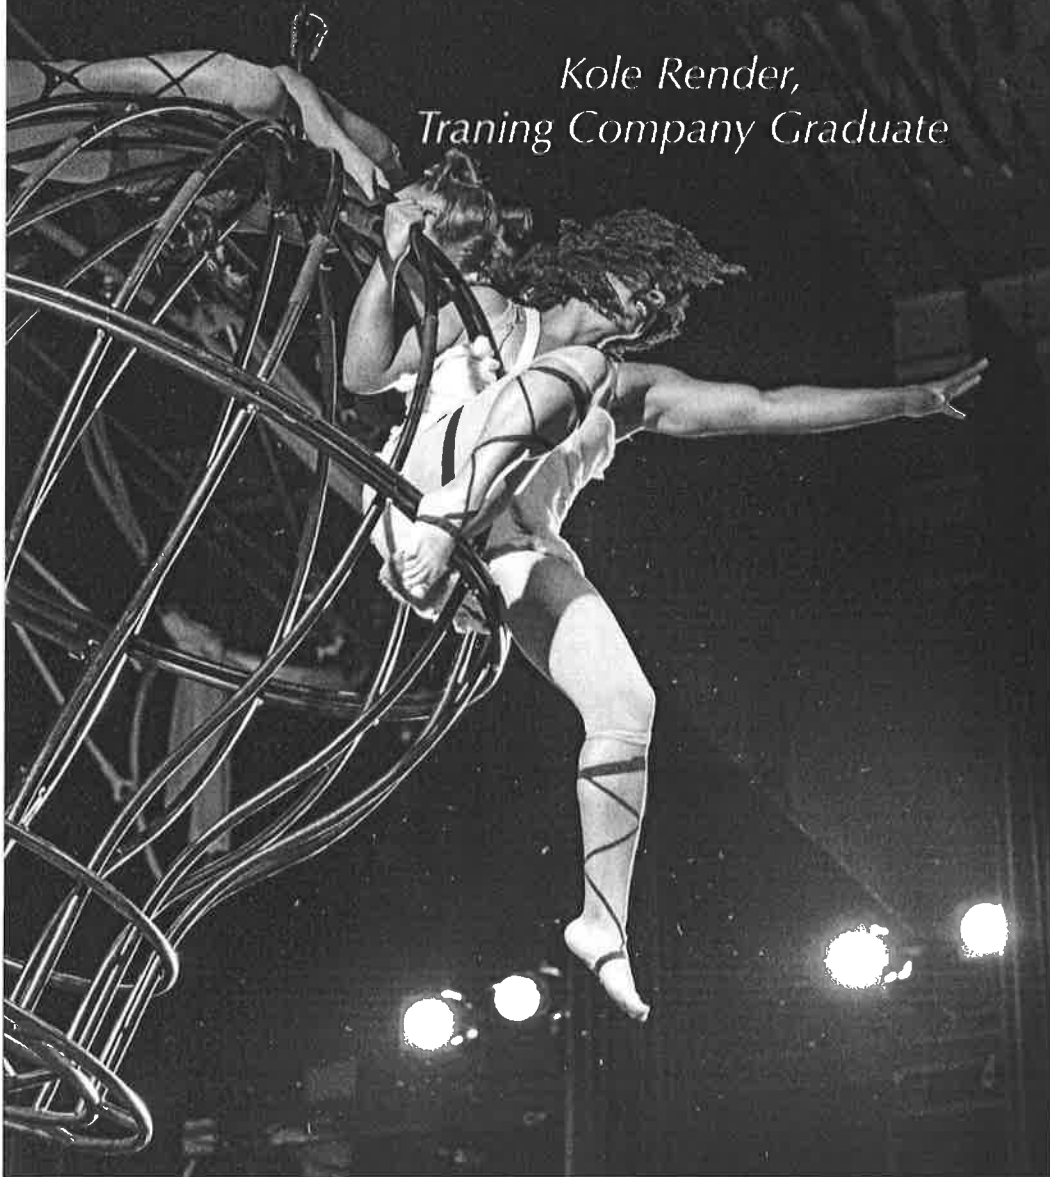

- Community center and charter school for Native America students
- 50 students
- 22 hours of training through Winter, Spring and Summer

the circus
PROJECT

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

"The Circus Project made me who I want to be – which is not to say that I always wanted to be a trapeze artist, but I always wanted to be strong, I wanted to be really capable – and all those qualities are qualities that I got by joining the circus."

*Kole Render,
Traning Company Graduate*

The Circus Project / W: www.TheCircusProject.org / P: 503.764.9174 / E: info@TheCircusProject.org
A: 1420 NW 17th Ave. / Suite 388 / Portland OR / 97209 / U.S.A.

 the circus PROJECT	Utilizing the unique power of circus arts to transcend social barriers and inspire personal transformation.
--	--

Financial Milestones

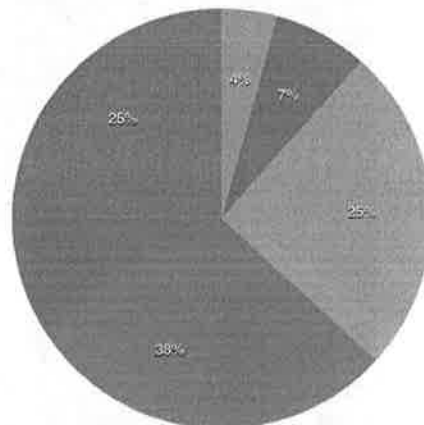

"Breathtaking... [The] combination of guts, ambition, and physical strength is entirely real and also perfectly magical."

*Peter Ames Carlin,
Reporter - The Oregonian*

INCOME: $325,974

- Corporations
- Individuals
- Operating Support Grants
- Capacity Grants
- Earned Income

EXPENSES: $209,817

- Admin
- Social Circus
- Performance Troupe
- Public Classes

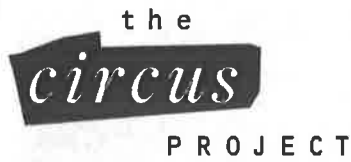

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

*"My daughter found her passion at TCP!
Watching her grow in confidence and strength under the careful guidance of TCP staff is a wonderful thing."*

Linda McGeady, Public Class Parent

Utilizing the unique power of circus arts
to transcend social barriers
and inspire personal transformation.

Supporters

CIRQUE DU SOLEIL.

The Autzen Foundation

Oregon
Cultural
Trust

Bloomfield
Family
Foundation

Herbert A. Templeton
Foundation