PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO A-ENGROSSED SENATE BILL 454

1 On page 1 of the printed A-engrossed bill, delete lines 5 through 25 and 2 delete pages 2 through 9 and insert:

3 “SECTION 1. Sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act are added to and made 4 a part of ORS chapter 653.

5 “SECTION 2. As used in sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act:

6 “(1)(a) ‘Employee’ means an individual who renders personal ser- 7 vices at a fixed rate to an employer if the employer either pays or 8 agrees to pay for personal services or permits the individual to per- 9 form personal services.

10 “(b) ‘Employee’ includes, but is not limited to:

11 “(A) An individual who is paid on a piece-rate basis or the basis of 12 the number of operations accomplished or quantity produced or han- 13 dled;

14 “(B) Individuals paid on an hourly, salary or commission basis;

15 “(C) Individuals for whom withholding is required under ORS 16 316.162 to 316.221; and 17 “(D) Home care workers as defined in ORS 410.600.

18 “(c) ‘Employee’ does not include:

19 “(A) An employee who receives paid sick time under federal law;

20 “(B) An independent contractor;

21 “(C) A participant in a work training program administered under 22 a state or federal assistance program;

From the Desk of Senator Ted Ferrick

1 “(D) A participant in a work-study program that provides students 2 in secondary or post-secondary educational institutions with employ-3 ment opportunities for financial or vocational training;

4 “(E) A railroad worker exempted under the federal Railroad Unem-5 ployment Insurance Act; and 6 “(F) An individual employed by that individual’s parent, spouse or 7 child.

8 “(2)(a) ‘Employer’ means any person that employs one or more 9 employees working anywhere in this state, a political subdivision of 10 the state and any county, city, district, authority, public corporation 11 or entity, and any instrumentality of a county, city, district, author-12 ity, public corporation or entity, organized and existing under law or 13 charter.

14 “(b) ‘Employer’ includes an employer located in a city with a pop-15 ulation exceeding 500,000.

16 “(c) ‘Employer’ does not include:

17 (A) The federal government; and 18 (B) A person engaged in an agricultural business.

19 “(3) ‘Employer located in a city with a population exceeding 20 500,000’ includes, but is not limited to, an employer that maintains any 21 office, store, restaurant or establishment in that city.

22 “(4) ‘Family member’ has the meaning given that term in ORS 23 659A.150.

24 “(5)(a) ‘Front-load,’ except as provided in paragraph (b) of this 25 subsection, means to assign and make available a certain number of 26 hours of sick time to an employee as soon as the employee becomes 27 eligible to use sick time and on the first day of the immediately sub-28 sequent year without regard to an accrual rate.

29 “(b) For employees employed by an employer for less than a full 30 year, ‘front-load’ means to assign and make available to an employee

1 as soon as the employee becomes eligible to use sick time a number 2 of hours of sick time that is the pro rata percentage of the hours the 3 employee would be entitled to for an entire year based on the number 4 of hours the employee was actually employed by the employer for the 5 year.

6 “(6) ‘Paid sick time’ means time off:

7 “(a) That is provided to an employee by an employer that employs 8 10 or more employees;

9 “(b) That may be used for the purposes specified in section 6 of this 10 2015 Act; and

11 “(c) That is compensated at the regular rate of pay and without 12 reductions in benefits, including but not limited to health care bene-13 fits, that the employee earns from the employer at the time the em-14 ployee uses the paid sick time.

15 “(7) ‘Sick time’ means time during which an employee is permitted 16 to be absent from work for a reason authorized under section 6 of this 17 2015 Act without a reduction in benefits, including but not limited to 18 health care benefits, that the employee earns from the employer.

19 “(8) ‘Year’ includes any consecutive 12-month period, such as a 20 calendar year, a tax year, a fiscal year, a contract year or the 21 12-month period beginning on the anniversary of the date of employ-22 ment of the employee.

23 “SECTION 3. (1)(a) Employers that employ at least 10 employees 24 working anywhere in this state shall implement a sick time policy that 25 allows an employee to earn and use up to 40 hours of paid sick time
26 per year. Paid sick time shall accrue at the rate of at least one hour 27 of paid sick time for every 30 hours the employee works or 1-1/3 hours 28 for every 40 hours the employee works.

29 “(b) Employers that employ fewer than 10 employees working any-30 where in this state shall implement a sick time policy that allows an

1 employee to earn and use up to 40 hours of unpaid sick time per year.
2 Unpaid sick time shall accrue at the rate of at least one hour of unpaid 3 sick time for every 30 hours the employee works or 1-1/3 hours for 4 every 40 hours the employee works.

5 “(c) Employers that employ at least 10 employees working anywhere 6 in this state and front-load for employees at least 40 hours of paid sick 7 time or paid time off at the beginning of each year used to calculate 8 the accrual and usage of sick time or time off need not comply with 9 subsections (1)(a) and (3) of this section.

10 “(d) Employers that employ fewer than 10 employees working any-11 where in this state and front-load for employees at least 40 hours of 12 unpaid sick time or unpaid time off at the beginning of each year used 13 to calculate the accrual and usage of sick time or time off need not 14 comply with subsections (1)(b) and (3) of this section.

15 “(2)(a) The number of employees employed by an employer shall be 16 ascertained by determining that the per-day average number of em-17 ployees is 10 or greater for each of 20 workweeks in the calendar year 18 or the fiscal year of the employer immediately preceding the year in 19 which the leave is to be taken.

20 “(b) If the business of the employer was not in existence for the 21 entire year preceding the determination made under paragraph (a) of 22 this subsection, the number of employees shall be based on any 20 23 workweeks preceding the request for sick time, which may include 24 workweeks in the current year, the preceding year or a combination 25 of workweeks in the current year and the preceding year.

26 “(3) An employee shall begin to earn and accrue sick time on the 27 first day of employment with an employer. The employee may carry 28 over up to 40 hours of unused sick time from one year to a subsequent 29 year. However, an employer may adopt a policy that limits:

30 “(a) An employee to accruing no more than 80 hours of sick time;

1 or

2 “(b) An employee to using no more than 40 hours of sick time in a 3 year.

4 “(4)(a) An employer is not required to carry over unused sick time 5 if, by mutual consent, the employer and an employee agree that:

6 “(A) If the employer has 10 or more employees working anywhere 7 in this state, the employee will be paid for all unused paid sick time 8 at the end of the year in which the sick time is accrued and the em-9 ployer will credit the employee with an amount of paid sick time that 10 meets the requirements of this section on the first day of the imme-11 diately subsequent year; or

12 “(B) If the employer has fewer than 10 employees working anywhere 13 in this state, the employer will credit the employee with an amount 14 of sick time that meets the requirements of this section on the first 15 day of the immediately subsequent year.

16 “(b) The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries shall 17 adopt rules for the determination of the number of employees em-18 ployed by an employer.

19 “(5)(a) An employee is eligible to use sick time beginning on the 91st 20 calendar day of employment with the employer and may use sick time 21 as it is accrued.

22 “(b) An employer may authorize an employee to use accrued sick 23 time prior to the 91st calendar day of employment.

24 “(c)(A) An employer that employs 10 or more employees working 25 anywhere in this state shall pay an employee for accrued sick time 26 used at the regular rate of pay of the employee.

27 “(B) For an employee employed on a commission or piece-rate basis 28 by an employer that employs 10 or more employees working anywhere 29 in this state, the employer shall pay the employee for accrued sick 30 time used at the employee’s regular rate of pay. If the employee is paid

1 on a commission or piece-rate basis and does not have a previously 2 established regular rate of pay, the employer shall pay the employee 3 at a rate equal to at least the minimum wage specified in ORS 653.025.

4 “(6) An employee who is exempt from overtime requirements under 5 29 U.S.C. 213(a)(1) of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 is 6 presumed to work 40 hours in each workweek for the purpose of ac-7 crual of sick time unless the actual workweek of the employee is less 8 than 40 hours, in which case sick time accrues based on the actual 9 workweek of the employee.

10 “(7) Nothing in sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act requires an employer 11 to compensate an employee for accrued unused sick time upon the 12 employee’s termination, resignation, retirement or other separation 13 from employment.

14 “(8) An employer may not require an employee to:

15 “(a) Search for or find a replacement worker as a condition of the 16 employee’s use of accrued sick time; or

17 “(b) Work an alternate shift to make up for the use of sick time.

18 “(9) Upon mutual consent by the employee and the employer, an 19 employee may work additional hours or shifts to compensate for hours 20 or shifts during which the employee was absent from work without 21 using accrued sick time for the hours or shifts missed. However, the 22 employer may not require the employee to work additional hours or 23 shifts authorized by this subsection. If the employee works additional 24 hours or shifts, the employer must comply with any applicable federal, 25 state or local laws regarding overtime pay.

26 “(10) An employee retains accrued sick time if the employer sells, 27 transfers or otherwise assigns the business or an interest in the busi-28 ness to another employer.

29 “(11)(a) An employer shall restore previously accrued unused sick 30 time to an employee who is reemployed by that employer within 180

1 days of separation from employment with the employer.

2 “(b) If an employee leaves employment with an employer before the 3 91st day of employment and subsequently is reemployed by that em-4 ployer within 180 days of separation from employment, the employer 5 shall restore the accrued sick time balance the employee had when the 6 employee left the employment of the employer and the employee may 7 use accrued sick time after the combined total of days of employment 8 with the employer exceeds 90 calendar days.

9 “(12) If an employee is transferred to a separate division, entity or 10 location of the employer but remains employed by that same employer, 11 the employee is entitled to use all sick time accrued while working at 12 the former division, entity or location of the employer and is entitled 13 to retain or use all sick time as provided by sections 2 to 16 of this 2015
14 Act.

15 “(13) Employers located in a city with a population exceeding 500,000 16 shall comply with sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act, except that:

17 “(a) If an employer located in a city with a population exceeding 18 500,000 employs at least six employees working anywhere in this state, 19 the employer shall implement a policy consistent with this section as 20 it applies to employers with at least 10 employees working anywhere 21 in this state.

22 “(b) If an employer located in a city with a population exceeding 23 500,000 employs fewer than six employees working anywhere in this 24 state, the employer shall implement a policy consistent with this sec-25 tion as it applies to employers with fewer than 10 employees working 26 anywhere in this state.

27 SECTION 4. (1) An employer with a sick leave policy, paid vacation 28 policy, paid personal time off policy or other paid time off program 29 that is substantially equivalent to or more generous to the employee 30 than the minimum requirements of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act

1 shall be deemed to be in compliance with the requirements of sections 2 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act.

3 “(2) If an employee of an employer that has a policy for paid sick 4 time, paid vacation leave, paid personal time off or other paid time 5 off programs has exhausted all paid and unpaid leave available to the 6 employee, the employer is not obligated to provide additional leave for 7 paid or unpaid sick time as required by sections 2 to 16 of this 2015
8 Act. However, the employer may be obligated to provide paid or unpaid 9 sick time by federal or state law that provides for paid or unpaid leave 10 for similar purposes.

11 “SECTION 5. Notwithstanding section 3 (5) of this 2015 Act, an 12 employee who is employed by an employer on the effective date of this 13 2015 Act is eligible to use any accrued sick time as it accrues on or 14 after the effective date of this 2015 Act.

15 “SECTION 6. An employee may use sick time earned under section 16 3 of this 2015 Act:

17 “(1) For an employee’s mental or physical illness, injury or health 18 condition, need for medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental 19 or physical illness, injury or health condition or need for preventive 20 medical care.

21 “(2) For care of a family member with a mental or physical illness, 22 injury or health condition, care of a family member who needs medical 23 diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or 24 health condition or care of a family member who needs preventive 25 medical care.

26 “(3) Notwithstanding ORS 659A.153, for any other purpose specified 27 in ORS 659A.159.

28 “(4) For a purpose specified in ORS 659A.272, notwithstanding ORS 29 659A.270 (1).

30 “(5) To donate accrued sick time to another employee if the other

1 employee uses the donated sick time for a purpose specified in this 2 section and the employer has a policy that allows an employee to do-3 nate sick time to a coworker for a purpose specified in this section.

4 “(6) In the event of a public health emergency. For purposes of this 5 subsection, a public health emergency includes, but is not limited to:

6 “(a) Closure of the employee’s place of business, or the school or 7 place of care of the employee’s child, by order of a public official due 8 to a public health emergency;

9 “(b) A determination by a lawful public health authority or by a 10 health care provider that the presence of the employee or the family 11 member of the employee in the community would jeopardize the health 12 of others, such that the employee must provide self care or care for 13 the family member; or

14 “(c) The exclusion of the employee from the workplace under any 15 law or rule that requires the employer to exclude the employee from 16 the workplace for health reasons.

17 “SECTION 7. (1)(a) Upon request of an employee with accrued sick 18 time available, an employer must allow the employee to use sick time.
19 If possible, the employee shall include the anticipated duration of the 20 sick time requested in the request.

21 “(b) Sick time earned under section 3 of this 2015 Act shall be taken 22 in hourly increments unless:

23 “(A) To do so would impose an undue hardship on the employer; 24 and

25 “(B) The employer has a policy or combination of policies that al-26 lows an employee to use at least 56 hours of paid leave per year that 27 may be taken in minimum increments of four hours and may be used 28 for the purposes specified in section 6 of this 2015 Act.

29 “(c) The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries shall 30 adopt rules for the implementation and administration of this sub-

1 section. The rules adopted shall include, but need not be limited to, 2 criteria for establishment of undue hardship under this section that 3 are based on the difficulty of securing a replacement worker while al-4 lowing the employer to apply a consistent policy to all employees.

5 “(2) An employer may require the employee to comply with the 6 employer’s usual and customary notice and procedural requirements 7 for absences or for requesting time off if those requirements do not 8 interfere with the ability of the employee to use sick time.

9 “(3) If the need to use sick time is foreseeable:

10 “(a) The employer may require reasonable advance notice of the 11 employee’s intention to use sick time, not to exceed 10 days prior to 12 the date the sick time is to begin or as soon as otherwise practicable; 13 and

14 “(b) The employee shall make a reasonable attempt to schedule the 15 use of sick time in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the oper-16 ations of the employer.

17 “(4) If the need to use sick time is unforeseeable, the employee shall 18 provide notice to the employer as soon as practicable and must comply 19 generally with the employer’s notice or procedural requirements for 20 requesting or reporting other time off if those requirements do not 21 interfere with the ability of the employee to use sick time.

22 “SECTION 8. (1)(a) If an employee takes more than three consec-23 utive scheduled workdays of sick time for a purpose described in sec-24 tion 6 (1) to (4) of this 2015 Act, an employer may require the employee 25 to provide verification from a health care provider of the need for the 26 sick time, or certification of the need for leave for purposes of ORS 27 659A.272 as provided in ORS 659A.280.

28 “(b) If the need for sick time is foreseeable and is projected to last 29 more than three scheduled workdays and an employee is required to 30 provide notice under section 7 of this 2015 Act, the employer may re-

1 quire that verification or certification be provided before the sick time 2 commences or as soon as otherwise practicable.

3 “(c) If the employee commences sick time without providing prior 4 notice required by the employer under section 7 of this 2015 Act:

5 “(A) Medical verification shall be provided to the employer within 6 15 calendar days after the employer requests the verification; or

7 “(B) Certification provided as specified in ORS 659A.280 shall be 8 provided to the employer within a reasonable time after the employee 9 receives the request for certification.

10 “(2) The employer shall pay any reasonable costs for providing 11 medical verification or certification required under this section, in- 12 cluding lost wages, that are not paid under a health benefit plan in 13 which the employee is enrolled.

14 “(3)(a) An employer may not require that the verification or certi- 15 fication required under this section explain the nature of the illness 16 or details related to the domestic violence, sexual assault, harassment, 17 or stalking that necessitates the use of sick time.

18 “(b) If an employer suspects that an employee is abusing sick time, 19 including engaging in a pattern of abuse, the employer may require 20 verification from a health care provider of the need of the employee 21 to use sick time, regardless of whether the employee has used sick 22 time for more than three consecutive days. As used in this paragraph, 23 ‘pattern of abuse’ includes, but is not limited to, repeated use of un- 24 scheduled sick time on or adjacent to weekends, holidays, vacation 25 days or paydays.

26 “(4) As used in this section, ‘health care provider’ has the meaning 27 given that term in ORS 659A.150.

28 “SECTION 9. (1) An employer shall:

29 “(a) Provide written notification at least quarterly to each employee 30 of the amount of accrued and unused sick time available for use by

1 the employee. Inclusion of the amount of accrued and used sick time
2 on the statement required under ORS 652.610 meets the requirements 3 of this paragraph.

4 “(b) Provide written notice of the requirements of sections 2 to 16 5 of this 2015 Act to each employee in accordance with rules adopted by 6 the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries.

7 “(2) The notices provided under this section must be in the language 8 the employer typically uses to communicate with the employee.

9 “(3) The Bureau of Labor and Industries shall make available to 10 employers a template that meets the required notice provisions of this 11 section.

12 “(4) Health information of an employee related to sick time is con-13 fidential and may not be released without the permission of the em-14 ployee. Information pertaining to leave under ORS 659A.272 that is 15 provided by an employee in accordance with sections 2 to 16 of this 16 2015 Act is confidential as provided in ORS 659A.280.

17 “SECTION 10. Sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act establish minimum 18 requirements pertaining to sick time and may not be construed to 19 preempt, limit or otherwise affect the applicability of any employer 20 policy, standard or collective bargaining agreement that provides for 21 greater use of paid or unpaid sick time.

22 “SECTION 11. It is an unlawful practice for an employer or any 23 other person to:

24 “(1) Deny, interfere with, restrain or fail to pay for sick time to 25 which an employee is entitled under sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act;

26 “(2) Retaliate or in any way discriminate against an employee with 27 respect to any term or condition of employment because the employee 28 has inquired about the provisions of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act, 29 submitted a request for sick time, taken sick time, participated in any 30 manner in an investigation, proceeding or hearing related to sections

1 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act, or invoked any provision of sections 2 to 16 2 of this 2015 Act; or

3 “(3) Apply an absence control policy that includes sick time ab-4 sences covered under sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act as an absence 5 that may lead to or result in an adverse employment action against 6 the employee.

7 “SECTION 12. (1) The requirements of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 8 Act do not apply to an employee:

9 “(a) Whose terms and conditions of employment are covered by a 10 collective bargaining agreement;

11 “(b) Who is employed through a hiring hall or similar referral sys-12 tem operated by the labor organization or a third party; and 13 “(c) Whose employment-related benefits are provided by a joint 14 multi-employer-employee trust or benefit plan.

15 “(2)(a) The Home Care Commission created under ORS 410.602 shall 16 establish a paid sick time policy for consumer employed home care 17 workers.

18 “(b) A policy for paid sick time for consumer employed home care 19 workers implemented by the Home Care Commission that allows an 20 eligible home care worker to accrue and use up to 40 hours of paid 21 time off a year, including but not limited to sick time, is deemed to 22 meet the requirements of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act and is ex-23 empt from the provisions of sections 2 (6), 3 (5), 4, 7, 8 and 9 of this 24 2015 Act.

25 “(3) As used in this section, ‘consumer employed home care
26 worker’ has the meaning given the term ‘home care worker’ in ORS 27 410.600.

28 “SECTION 13. (1) An employee asserting a violation of section 11 29 (2) or (3) of this 2015 Act may file a complaint with the Commissioner 30 of the Bureau of Labor and Industries under ORS 659A.820 or a civil

1 action as provided in ORS 659A.885.

2 “(2) The commissioner has the same enforcement powers with re-
3 spect to the rights established under sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act 4 as are established in ORS chapters 652 and 653.

5 “SECTION 14. The Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor and In- 6 dustries:

7 “(1) Shall enforce the provisions of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act; 8 and

9 “(2) May adopt rules necessary for the implementation and 10 enforcement of sections 2 to 16 of this 2015 Act.

11 “SECTION 15. The State of Oregon preempts all charter and statu-
12 tory authority of local governments as defined in ORS 174.116 to set 13 any sick leave requirements.

14 “SECTION 16. If any provision or application of sections 2 to 16 of 15 this 2015 Act is determined to be invalid, the remaining provisions re- 16 main in force and have full effect, and the invalid provisions are de- 17 clared severable.

18 “SECTION 17. ORS 653.256 is amended to read:

19 “653.256. (1) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the Com-20 missioner of the Bureau of Labor and Industries may assess a civil penalty 21 not to exceed $1,000 against any person [who] that willfully violates ORS 22 653.025, 653.030, 653.045, 653.050, 653.060 or 653.261 or sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 23 8, 9 and 10 of this 2015 Act or any rule adopted thereunder.

24 “(2) In addition to any other penalty provided by law, the commissioner 25 may assess a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000 against any person [who] that 26 intentionally violates ORS 653.077 or any rule adopted thereunder.

27 “(3) Civil penalties authorized by this section shall be imposed in the 28 manner provided in ORS 183.745.

29 “(4)(a) All sums collected as penalties under this section shall be first 30 applied toward reimbursement of costs incurred in determining the vio-

1 lations, conducting hearings under this section and addressing and collecting 2 the penalties.

3 “(b) The remainder, if any, of the sums collected as penalties under sub-4 section (1) of this section shall be paid over by the commissioner to the De-5 partment of State Lands for the benefit of the Common School Fund of this 6 state. The department shall issue a receipt for the money to the commis-7 sioner.

8 “(c) The remainder, if any, of the sums collected as penalties under sub-9 section (2) of this section shall be paid over by the commissioner to the De-
10 partment of Human Services for the benefit of the Breastfeeding Mother 11 Friendly Employer Project. The department shall issue a receipt for the 12 moneys to the commissioner.

13 “SECTION 18. ORS 659A.885 is amended to read:

14 “659A.885. (1) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful prac-15 tice specified in subsection (2) of this section may file a civil action in cir-16 cuit court. In any action under this subsection, the court may order 17 injunctive relief and any other equitable relief that may be appropriate, in-18 cluding but not limited to reinstatement or the hiring of employees with or 19 without back pay. A court may order back pay in an action under this sub-20 section only for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of a 21 complaint under ORS 659A.820 with the Commissioner of the Bureau of La-22 bor and Industries, or if a complaint was not filed before the action was 23 commenced, the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the 24 action. In any action under this subsection, the court may allow the pre-25 vailing party costs and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal. Ex-26 cept as provided in subsection (3) of this section:

27 “(a) The judge shall determine the facts in an action under this sub-28 section; and

29 “(b) Upon any appeal of a judgment in an action under this subsection, 30 the appellate court shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard es-

1 established by ORS 19.415 (3).

2 “(2) An action may be brought under subsection (1) of this section alleg-
3 ing a violation of ORS 10.090, 10.092, 25.337, 25.424, 171.120, 408.230, 408.237 4 (2), 476.574, 652.355, 653.060, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.063, 5 659A.069, 659A.082, 659A.088, 659A.103 to 659A.145, 659A.150 to 659A.186, 6 659A.194, 659A.199, 659A.203, 659A.218, 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.233, 7 659A.236, 659A.250 to 659A.262, 659A.277, 659A.290, 659A.300, 659A.306, 8 659A.309, 659A.315, 659A.318, 659A.320 or 659A.421 or sections 2 to 16 of 9 this 2015 Act.

10 “(3) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation 11 of ORS 25.337, 25.424, 659A.030, 659A.040, 659A.043, 659A.046, 659A.069, 12 659A.082, 659A.103 to 659A.145, 659A.199, 659A.228, 659A.230, 659A.250 to 13 659A.262, 659A.290, 659A.318 or 659A.421:

14 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under 15 subsection (1) of this section, compensatory damages or $200, whichever is 16 greater, and punitive damages;

17 “(b) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

18 “(c) Upon appeal of any judgment finding a violation, the appellate court 19 shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 20 19.415 (1); and

21 “(d) Any attorney fee agreement shall be subject to approval by the court.

22 “(4) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation
23 of ORS 652.355 or 653.060, the court may award, in addition to the relief 24 authorized under subsection (1) of this section, compensatory damages or 25 $200, whichever is greater.

26 “(5) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation 27 of ORS 171.120, 476.574, 659A.203 or 659A.218, the court may award, in addi-28 tion to the relief authorized under subsection (1) of this section, 29 compensatory damages or $250, whichever is greater.

30 “(6) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation

1 of ORS 10.090 or 10.092, the court may award, in addition to the relief au-2 thorized under subsection (1) of this section, a civil penalty in the amount 3 of $720.

4 “(7) Any individual against whom any distinction, discrimination or re-5 striction on account of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national 6 origin, marital status or age, if the individual is 18 years of age or older, 7 has been made by any place of public accommodation, as defined in ORS 8 659A.400, by any employee or person acting on behalf of the place or by any 9 person aiding or abetting the place or person in violation of ORS 659A.406 10 may bring an action against the operator or manager of the place, the em-11 ployee or person acting on behalf of the place or the aider or abettor of the 12 place or person. Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, in an action 13 under this subsection:

14 “(a) The court may award, in addition to the relief authorized under 15 subsection (1) of this section, compensatory and punitive damages;

16 “(b) The operator or manager of the place of public accommodation, the 17 employee or person acting on behalf of the place, and any aider or abettor 18 shall be jointly and severally liable for all damages awarded in the action;

19 “(c) At the request of any party, the action shall be tried to a jury;

20 “(d) The court shall award reasonable attorney fees to a prevailing 21 plaintiff;

22 “(e) The court may award reasonable attorney fees and expert witness fees 23 incurred by a defendant who prevails only if the court determines that the 24 plaintiff had no objectively reasonable basis for asserting a claim or no 25 reasonable basis for appealing an adverse decision of a trial court; and 26 “(f) Upon any appeal of a judgment under this subsection, the appellate 27 court shall review the judgment pursuant to the standard established by ORS 28 19.415 (1).

29 “(8) When the commissioner or the Attorney General has reasonable cause 30 to believe that a person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or

1 practice of resistance to the rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 2 or federal housing law, or that a group of persons has been denied any of the 3 rights protected by ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or federal housing law, the 4 commissioner or the Attorney General may file a civil action on behalf of 5 the aggrieved persons in the same manner as a person or group of persons 6 may file a civil action under this section. In a civil action filed under this 7 subsection, the court may assess against the respondent, in addition to the 8 relief authorized under subsections (1) and (3) of this section, a civil penalty:

9 “(a) In an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first violation; and 10 “(b) In an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

11 “(9) In any action under subsection (1) of this section alleging a violation
12 of ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or alleging discrimination under federal housing 13 law, when the commissioner is pursuing the action on behalf of an aggrieved 14 complainant, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the commis-15 sioner if the commissioner prevails in the action. The court may award rea-16 sonable attorney fees and expert witness fees incurred by a defendant that 17 prevails in the action if the court determines that the commissioner had no 18 objectively reasonable basis for asserting the claim or for appealing an ad-19 verse decision of the trial court.

20 “(10) In an action under subsection (1) or (8) of this section alleging a 21 violation of ORS 659A.145 or 659A.421 or discrimination under federal hous-22 ing law:

23 “(a) ‘Aggrieved person’ includes a person who believes that the person:

24 “(A) Has been injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing 25 practice; or

26 “(B) Will be injured by an unlawful practice or discriminatory housing 27 practice that is about to occur.

28 “(b) An aggrieved person in regard to issues to be determined in an action 29 may intervene as of right in the action. The Attorney General may intervene 30 in the action if the Attorney General certifies that the case is of general

1 public importance. The court may allow an intervenor prevailing party costs 2 and reasonable attorney fees at trial and on appeal.
