EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT:

Applies law enforcement defenses to honorably retired and off-duty police officers. Specifies bill only applies to parole and probation officers acting within scope of employment.

BACKGROUND:

ORS 166.250 states that a person commits the crime of “unlawful possession of a firearm” if the person: 1) knowingly carries any firearm concealed upon the person; 2) knowingly possesses a handgun that is concealed and readily accessible to the person within any vehicle; 3) knowingly possesses a firearm and is under 18 years of age; 4) has been convicted of a felony; 5) was committed to the Oregon Health Authority; or 6) is mentally ill or has been found guilty except for insanity. The law contains an exemption for certain law enforcement officers.

Similarly, ORS 166.370 states that a person who intentionally possesses a loaded or unloaded firearm or any other instrument used as a dangerous weapon while in a public building is guilty of “possession of firearm or dangerous weapon in public building or court facility.” The law also contains certain exemptions for “a sheriff, police officer, other duly appointed peace officer or a corrections officer while acting within the scope of employment.”

House Bill 2357 A expands upon the applicable law enforcement defenses in these statutes. The bill adds provisions for federal officers, corrections officers and reserve officers acting within the scope of employment as well as both off-duty and honorably retired police officers. The bill removes language concerning corrections officers carrying firearms while transporting or accompanying an inmate. Additionally, House Bill 2357 A adds similar expanded definitions to ORS 166.370, thus allowing qualifying law enforcement to carry firearms and other weapons in public buildings under certain circumstances.

House Bill 2357 A amends ORS 166.173 to state that, although a city or county is permitted to adopt ordinances concerning the possession of loaded firearms in public places, those ordinances to not apply to off-duty or honorably retired police officers. Lastly, the bill amends ORS 166.663 and ORS 821.240 to allow honorably retired police officers to cast an artificial light from a vehicle while in the immediate presence of a firearm or bow and arrow, and to operate a snowmobile and all-terrain vehicle with a loaded firearm or bow and arrow.
