12 who is still incarcerated, as part of the sentence for the offense that is the subject of the 13 motion has not fully complied with or performed the sentence of the court.

14 “(b) At any time after the lapse of one year from the date of any arrest, if no accusatory in-15 strument was filed, or at any time after an acquittal or a dismissal of the charge, the arrested per-16 son may apply to the court that would have jurisdiction over the crime for which the person was 17 arrested, for entry of an order setting aside the record of the arrest. For the purpose of computing 18 the one-year period, time during which the arrested person has secreted himself or herself within 19 or without this state is not included.

20 “(c) A person whose sentence of probation was revoked may not apply to the court for 21 entry of an order setting aside the conviction for which the person was sentenced to pro-

25 to prosecute the charge if there was no accusatory instrument filed, and opportunity shall be given 26 to contest the motion. The fingerprint card with the notation ‘motion for setting aside conviction,’ 27 or ‘motion for setting aside arrest record’ as the case may be, shall be forwarded to the Department
28 of State Police. Information resulting from the fingerprint search along with the fingerprint card 29 shall be returned to the prosecuting attorney.

32 hearing date to the victim, if any, of the crime by mailing a copy of the motion and notice to the 33 victim’s last-known address.

34 “(c) When a person makes a motion under subsection (1)(a) of this section, the person must pay 35 a fee of $80 to the Department of State Police. The person shall attach a certified check payable to

14 different from the original, date of charge, submitting agency and disposition. The order shall further 15 state that positive identification has been established by the Department of State Police and further

18 convicted, or arrested as the case may be, and the court shall issue an order sealing the record of 19 conviction and other official records in the case, including the records of arrest whether or not the 20 arrest resulted in a further criminal proceeding.

21 “(4) The clerk of the court shall forward a certified copy of the order to such agencies as di-
22 rected by the court. A certified copy must be sent to the Department of Corrections when the person
23 has been in the custody of the Department of Corrections. Upon entry of the order, the conviction,
