A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to notices about help for victims of human trafficking; and declaring an emergency.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. (1) As used in this section, "tax-exempt" means recognized as tax-exempt under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) A tax-exempt nonprofit organization may supply to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission copies of informational materials about human trafficking. The organization may not charge the commission for the materials. The form of the materials may include, but need not be limited to, adhesive stickers. The materials may not include information on topics other than human trafficking. The materials must be limited in content to objectively verifiable information, except that the materials may include logos, symbols, graphics or similar devices and may include a cover letter to commission licensees to urge the licensees to post the adhesive materials or other materials at the licensees' premises.

(3) Except as provided in this subsection, if a tax-exempt nonprofit organization supplies the commission with informational materials as described in subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall include a copy of the materials with each license renewal notice that the commission sends to an on-premises sales, off-premises sales or brewery-public house licensee. The number of copies of the materials that the commission sends to licensees may not exceed the number of copies that the organization supplies to the commission. If the commission determines that the informational materials have offensive or inappropriate

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.
