31 made up of the remaining board members. If this second panel agrees with neither member of the 32 original panel, the matter will be referred to a hearing before the full board.

33 (4) The provisions of subsections (1) to (3) of this section shall not apply to a decision to release 34 a prisoner sentenced under ORS 144.110 (1). In such cases, the board shall release the prisoner only 35 upon affirmative vote of a majority of [the board] three board members or, if the chairperson 36 requires all voting members to participate, a majority of all voting members.

37 (5) The chairperson may elect to conduct the hearings described in this section by conference

39 SECTION 5. ORS 144.054 is amended to read:

40 144.054. (1) Whenever the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision makes a decision 41 affecting a person sentenced to life imprisonment or convicted of a crime involving the death of a 42 victim, whether or not the prosecution directly charged the person with causing the death of the 43 victim, the decision affecting such person must be reviewed by [the full membership of the board] 44 no fewer than three board members.

45 (2) Whenever the board makes a release decision pursuant to ORS 144.125 or 144.232 af-

1 fecting a person sentenced to life imprisonment, convicted of a crime involving the death of 2 a victim or convicted of rape in the first degree, sodomy in the first degree, unlawful sexual 3 penetration in the first degree or kidnapping in the first degree, the decision shall be in 4 writing and shall specify the reasons for the decision.

5 SECTION 6. ORS 144.079 is amended to read:

6 144.079. (1)(a) If a prisoner is sentenced to terms of imprisonment that are consecutive to one 7 another and result from crimes committed during the period before the prisoner's first initial parole 8 hearing, or if a prisoner is sentenced to terms of imprisonment that are consecutive to one another 9 and result from crimes committed during the period between any two initial parole hearings, the 10 total term resulting from the crimes committed during each such separate period shall be determined 11 by the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision as follows, except as provided in sub-12 section (2) of this section, and the total terms so determined shall then be summed as provided in 13 ORS 144.783 (1):

14 (A) First, the board shall establish the appropriate range for the felony determined by the board, 15 according to its rules, to be the most serious of the felonies committed during the period. If two 16 or more felonies are determined to be equally the most serious, the board shall establish the ap-17 appropriate range under this paragraph only for one of those felonies.

18 (B) Second, the board shall establish a range for each of the remaining felonies committed dur-19 ing the same period. For purposes of establishing the ranges for the remaining felonies under this 20 paragraph, the board shall not consider prior criminal history.

21 (C) Third, the board shall determine the total range applicable in the offender's case for crimes 22 committed during the same period by summing the ranges established under subparagraph (B) of this 23 paragraph with the range established under subparagraph (A) of this paragraph and shall determine 24 an appropriate term within that range.

25 (D) Finally, the board shall vary the term determined under subparagraph (C) of this paragraph 26 according to rules established under ORS 144.785 (1), if the board finds aggravating or mitigating 27 factors in the case. The board shall consider as an aggravating factor the fact that the prisoner has 28 been sentenced to consecutive terms of imprisonment.

29 (b) Whenever a prisoner is committed to the custody of the Department of Corrections for a 30 crime that was committed during a period already considered at an initial parole hearing and upon 31 a sentence consecutive to any sentence imposed for crimes committed during that period, the board 32 shall conduct a hearing to consider the previously unconsidered crime. The hearing shall be a 33 hearing supplemental to the original initial hearing concerning crimes committed during the period.
 34 Time limitations and other procedural provisions applicable to initial hearings shall apply to a sup-35 plemental hearing under this subsection. Upon conclusion of the supplemental hearing, the board 36 shall redetermine the appropriate total term for the period. The redetermination shall be conducted 37 de novo under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section.

38 (2) The method established by this section for determining, where applicable, the total term re-39 sulting from the summing of consecutive sentences shall apply only if none of the crimes involved 40 is:

- 41 (a) Murder, as defined in ORS 163.115 or any aggravated form thereof;
- 42 (b) Assault in the first degree, as defined in ORS 163.185;
- 43 (c) Kidnapping in the first degree, as defined in ORS 163.235;
- 44 (d) Rape in the first degree, as defined in ORS 163.375;
- 45 (e) Sodomy in the first degree, as defined in ORS 163.405;

1 (f) Unlawful sexual penetration, as defined in ORS 163.411;

2 (g) Arson in the first degree, as defined in ORS 164.325; or 3 (h) Treason, as defined in ORS 166.005.

4 (3) The duration of imprisonment pursuant to consecutive sentences may be less than the sum
5 of the terms under subsection (1) of this section if the board finds, by affirmative vote of a majority 6 of [its] three board members or, if the chairperson requires all voting members to participate, 7 a majority of all voting members, that consecutive sentences are not appropriate penalties for the 8 criminal offenses involved and that the combined terms of imprisonment are not necessary to protect 9 community security.

10 (4) The [State] board [of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision] shall use the method set forth in 11 subsections (1) to (3) of this section to determine the parole release date for any person serving a 12 sentence in the custody of the Department of Corrections for crimes committed before or after July 13 11, 1987.

14 SECTION 7. ORS 144.110 is amended to read:

15 144.110. (1) In any felony case, the court may impose a minimum term of imprisonment of up to 16 one-half of the sentence it imposes.

17 (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 144.120 and 144.780:

18 (a) The State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision shall not release a prisoner on parole 19 who has been sentenced under subsection (1) of this section until the minimum term has been served, 20 except upon affirmative vote of a majority of [the members of the board] three board members or,
21 if the chairperson requires all voting members to participate, a majority of all voting mem- 22 bers.

23 (b) The board shall not release a prisoner on parole:

24 (A) Who has been convicted of murder defined as aggravated murder under the provisions of 25 ORS 163.095, except as provided in ORS 163.105; or

26 (B) Who has been convicted of murder under the provisions of ORS 163.115, except as provided 27 in ORS 163.115 (5)(c) to (f) or 163.155 (6) to (8).

28 SECTION 8. ORS 144.783 is amended to read:

29 144.783. (1) When a prisoner is sentenced to two or more consecutive terms of imprisonment, the 30 duration of the term of imprisonment shall be the sum of the terms set by the State Board of Parole 31 and Post-Prison Supervision pursuant to the ranges established for the offenses, subject to ORS 32 144.079, and subject to the variations established pursuant to ORS 144.785 (1).

33 (2) The duration of imprisonment pursuant to consecutive sentences may be less than the sum
34 of the terms under subsection (1) of this section if the board finds, by affirmative vote of a majority 35 of [its members] three board members or, if the chairperson requires all voting members to 36 participate, a majority of all voting members, that consecutive sentences are not appropriate 37 penalties for the criminal offenses involved and that the combined terms of imprisonment are not 38 necessary to protect community security.

39 SECTION 9. ORS 163.105 is amended to read:

40 163.105. Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS chapter 144 and ORS 421.450 to 421.490:

41 (1)(a) Except as otherwise provided in ORS [137.700] 137.707, when a defendant is convicted of 42 aggravated murder as defined by ORS 163.095, the defendant shall be sentenced, pursuant to ORS 43 163.150, to death, life imprisonment without the possibility of release or parole or life imprisonment.

44 (b) A person sentenced to life imprisonment without the possibility of release or parole under 45 this section shall not have that sentence suspended, deferred or commuted by any judicial officer,

1 and the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision may not parole the prisoner nor reduce 2 the period of confinement in any manner whatsoever. The Department of Corrections or any execu-3 tive official may not permit the prisoner to participate in any sort of release or furlough program.

4 (c) If sentenced to life imprisonment, the court shall order that the defendant shall be confined 5 for a minimum of 30 years without possibility of parole, release to post-prison supervision, release 6 on work release or any form of temporary leave or employment at a forest or work camp.

7 (2) At any time after completion of a minimum period of confinement pursuant to subsection 8 (1)(c) of this section, the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision, upon the petition of a 9 prisoner so confined, shall hold a hearing to determine if the prisoner is likely to be rehabilitated 10 within a reasonable period of time. The sole issue is whether or not the prisoner is likely to be re-11 habilitated within a reasonable period of time. At the hearing, the prisoner has:

12 (a) The burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the likelihood of rehabilitation 13 within a reasonable period of time;

14 (b) The right, if the prisoner is without sufficient funds to employ an attorney, to be represented 15 by legal counsel, appointed by the board, at board expense; and 16 (c) The right to a subpoena upon a showing of the general relevance and reasonable scope of 17 the evidence sought, provided that any subpoena issued on behalf of the prisoner must be issued by 18 the State Board of Parole and Post-Prison Supervision pursuant to rules adopted by the board.

19 (3) If, upon hearing all of the evidence, the board, upon a unanimous vote of [all of its] three 20 board members or, if the chairperson requires all voting members to participate, a unani- 21 mous vote of all voting members, finds that the prisoner is capable of rehabilitation and that the 22 terms of the prisoner's confinement should be changed to life imprisonment with the possibility of 23 parole, release to post-prison supervision or work release, it shall enter an order to that effect and 24 the order shall convert the terms of the prisoner's confinement to life imprisonment with the possi-
25 bility of parole, release to post-prison supervision or work release and may set a release date. Oth-26 erwise the board shall deny the relief sought in the petition.

27 (4) If the board denies the relief sought in the petition, the board shall determine the date of the 28 subsequent hearing, and the prisoner may petition for an interim hearing, in accordance with ORS 29 144.285.

30 (5) The board's final order shall be accompanied by findings of fact and conclusions of law. The 31 findings of fact shall consist of a concise statement of the underlying facts supporting the findings 32 as to each contested issue of fact and as to each ultimate fact required to support the board's order.

33 SECTION 10. ORS 163.115 is amended to read:

10 parole, release to post-prison supervision or work release, it shall enter an order to that effect and 11 the order shall convert the terms of the prisoner's confinement to life imprisonment with the possi-

24 reckless conduct of a defendant.

25 (b) "Neglect or maltreatment" means a violation of ORS 163.535, 163.545 or 163.547 or a failure

33 163.155. (1) When a defendant, who was at least 15 years of age at the time of committing the 34 murder, is convicted of murdering a pregnant victim under ORS 163.115 (1)(a) and the defendant 35 knew that the victim was pregnant, the defendant shall be sentenced to life imprisonment without 36 the possibility of release or parole or to life imprisonment. The court shall conduct a sentencing 37 proceeding to determine whether the defendant shall be sentenced to life imprisonment without the 38 possibility of release or parole as described in subsection (4) of this section or to life imprisonment 39 as described in subsection (5) of this section. If the defendant waives all rights to a jury sentencing 40 proceeding, the court shall conduct the sentencing proceeding as the trier of fact. The procedure for 41 the sentencing proceeding, whether before a court or a jury, shall follow the procedure of ORS 42 163.150 (1)(a), as modified by this section.

43 (2) Following the presentation of evidence and argument under subsection (1) of this section, the 44 court shall instruct the jury that the trial court shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment 45 without the possibility of release or parole as described in subsection (4) of this section, unless after

1 considering all of the evidence submitted, 10 or more members of the jury find there are sufficient 2 mitigating circumstances to warrant life imprisonment with the possibility of release or parole as 3 described in subsection (5) of this section. If 10 or more members of the jury do not find there are 4 sufficient mitigating circumstances to warrant life imprisonment with the possibility of release or 5 parole, the trial court shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment without the possibility of 6 release or parole as described in subsection (4) of this section. If 10 or more members of the jury 7 find there are sufficient mitigating circumstances to warrant life imprisonment with the possibility 8 of release or parole, the trial court shall sentence the defendant to life imprisonment as described 9 in subsection (5) of this section.

10 (3) Nothing in this section precludes the court from sentencing the defendant to life 11 imprisonment, as described in subsection (5) of this section, or life imprisonment without the possi-12 bility of release or parole, as described in subsection (4) of this section, pursuant to a stipulation 13 of sentence or stipulation of sentencing facts agreed to and offered by both parties if the defendant 14 waives all rights to a jury sentencing proceeding.

15 (4) A sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of release or parole under this section 16 may not be suspended, deferred or commuted by any judicial officer, and the State Board of Parole 17 and Post-Prison Supervision may neither parole the prisoner nor reduce the period of confinement 18 in any manner whatsoever. The Department of Corrections or any executive official may not permit 19 the prisoner to participate in any sort of release or furlough program.

20 (5) If the defendant is sentenced to life imprisonment, the court shall order that the defendant 21 be confined for a minimum of 30 years without possibility of parole, release to post-prison super-22 vision, release on work release or any form of temporary leave or employment at a forest or work 23 camp.

24 (6) At any time after completion of the minimum period of confinement pursuant to subsection 25 (5) of this section, the board, upon the petition of a prisoner so confined, shall hold a hearing to 26 determine if the prisoner is likely to be rehabilitated within a reasonable period of time. The sole 27 issue shall be whether the prisoner is likely to be rehabilitated within a reasonable period of time.
28 The proceeding shall be conducted in the manner prescribed for a contested case hearing under ORS

40 terms of the prisoner's confinement should be changed to life imprisonment with the possibility of 41 parole, release on post-prison supervision or work release, it shall enter an order to that effect and 42 the order shall convert the terms of the prisoner's confinement to life imprisonment with the possi-43 bility of parole, release on post-prison supervision or work release and may set a release date.
44 Otherwise the board shall deny the relief sought in the petition.

45 (8) Not less than two years after the denial of the relief sought in a petition under this section,

1 the prisoner may petition again for a change in the terms of confinement. Further petitions for a 2 change may be filed at intervals of not less than two years thereafter.
