26 forceable. If a devisee contests a will that contains an in terrorem clause that applies to the devisee, 27 the court shall enforce the clause against the devisee even though the devisee establishes that there

7 obliterated or destroyed, with the intent and purpose of the testator of revoking the will, by the 8 testator, or by another person at the direction of the testator and in the presence of the testator.
9 The injury or destruction of the will by a person other than the testator at the direction and in the 10 presence of the testator shall be proved by at least two witnesses.
11       “(3) A partial revocation of a provision in a will by one or more physical acts as described 12 in subsection (2) of this section is not a valid revocation. One or more physical acts that 13 affect one or more provisions of a will but not the entirety of the will are not effective to 14 revoke those provisions, but clear and convincing evidence may show that the testator in- 15 tended by the physical act or acts to revoke the entirety of the will.
16       “SECTION 16. ORS 112.305 is amended to read:
17       “112.305. A will is revoked by the subsequent marriage of the testator if the testator is survived 18 by a spouse, unless:

25 under ORS 106.300 to 106.340 or a similar law in another state and the testator subsequently 26 marries the domestic partner.
27       “SECTION 17. ORS 112.345 is amended to read:
28       “112.345. A devise of property to any person for the term of the life of the person, and after the 29 death of the person to the [children or] heirs of the person, vests an estate or interest for life only 30 in the devisee and remainder in the [children or] heirs.
31       “SECTION 18. ORS 112.355 is amended to read:
32       “112.355. A devise of property passes all of the interest of the testator [therein] in the property
33 at the time of the death of the testator, unless the will evidences the intent of the testator to devise 34 a lesser interest.
35       “SECTION 19. ORS 112.365 is amended to read:
36       “112.365. Any property acquired by the testator after the making of a will passes [thereby, and 37 in like manner] pursuant to the will as if title [thereto] to the property were vested in the testator 38 at the time of making the will, unless the intent expressed in the will is clear and explicit to the 39 contrary.
40       “SECTION 20. ORS 112.385 is amended to read:
41       “112.385. (1) In the situations and under the circumstances provided in and governed by this 42 section, specific devises will not fail or be extinguished by the encumbrance, destruction, damage,
43 sale, condemnation or change in form of the property specifically devised. This section is inapplica-44 ble if the intent that the devise fail under the particular circumstances appears in the will or if the 45 testator during the lifetime of the testator gives property to the specific devisee with the intent of

1 satisfying the specific devise.

2 “(2) Whenever the subject of a specific devise is property only part of which is encumbered,
3 destroyed, damaged, sold or condemned, the specific devise of any remaining interest in the property
4 owned by the testator at the time of death is not affected by this section[;], but this section applies
5 to the part which would have been adeemed under the common law by the destruction, damage, sale 6 or condemnation.

7 “(3) If insured property that is the subject of a specific devise is destroyed or damaged, the 8 specific devisee has the right to receive, reduced by any amount expended or incurred by the 9 testator in restoration or repair of the property:

10 “(a) Any insurance proceeds paid to the personal representative after the death of the testator, 11 with the incidents of the specific devise; and

12 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to any insurance proceeds paid to the testator within 13 six months before the death of the testator.

14 “(4) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is sold by the testator, the specific devisee 15 has the right to receive:

16 “(a) Any balance of the purchase price unpaid at the time of the death of the testator, including 17 any security interest in the property and interest accruing before the death, if part of the estate,
18 with the incidents of the specific devise; and

19 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the amount of the purchase price paid to the 20 testator within six months before the death of the testator. Acceptance of a promissory note of the 21 purchaser or a third party is not considered payment, but payment on the note is payment on the 22 purchase price. Sale by an agent of the testator or by a trustee under a revocable living trust cre-
23 ated by the testator, the principal of which is to be paid to the personal representative or estate
24 of the testator on the death of the testator, is a sale by the testator for purposes of this section.

25 “(5) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is taken by condemnation before the death 26 of the testator, the specific devisee has the right to receive:

27 “(a) Any amount of the condemnation award unpaid at the time of the death, with the incidents 28 of the specific devise; and

29 “(b) A general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the amount of an award paid to the testator
30 within six months before the death of the testator. In the event of an appeal in a condemnation 31 proceeding, the award, for purposes of this section, is limited to the amount established on the ap-32 peal.

33 “(6) If property that is the subject of a specific devise is sold by a conservator of the testator,
34 or insurance proceeds or a condemnation award are paid to a conservator of the testator, the spe-35 cific devisee has the right to receive a general pecuniary legacy equivalent to the proceeds of the 36 sale, the insurance proceeds or the condemnation award, reduced by any amount expended or in-37 curred in restoration or repair of the property. This subsection does not apply if the testator, after 38 the sale, receipt of insurance proceeds or award, is adjudicated competent and survives such adju-39 dication by six months.

40 “(7) If securities are specifically devised, and after the execution of the will other securities in 41 the same or another entity are distributed to the testator by reason of ownership of the specifically
42 devised securities and as a result of a partial liquidation, stock dividend, stock split, merger, con-
43 solidation, reorganization, recapitalization, redemption, exchange or any other similar transaction, 44 and if the other securities are part of the estate of the testator at death, the specific devise is 45 considered to include the additional or substituted securities. Distributions prior to death with re-

1 spect to a specifically devised security not provided for in this subsection are not part of the specific 2 devise. As used in this subsection, 'securities' means the same as defined in ORS 59.015.

3 "(8) The amount a specific devisee receives as provided in this section is reduced by any ex-
