5 “(e) Other credible information.

6 “(7) If a temporary cease and desist order issued under subsection (6) of 7 this section mandates compensation to an employee in an amount that is 8 disputed by an employer, the employer may provide a bond in lieu of payment 9 to ensure timely payment of compensation for a future period in an amount
10 the commissioner determines necessary. Any amount required for payment 11 to the employee or bond shall be stated in the temporary cease and desist 12 order.

13 “(8) An employer may request a hearing under ORS 183.413 to 183.470 to 14 contest all or part of a temporary cease and desist order. To request a 15 hearing, the employer shall:

16 “(a) Request in writing to the commissioner a hearing to contest the 17 temporary cease and desist order;

18 “(b) Specify the grounds on which the employer contests the temporary 19 cease and desist order; and

20 “(c) Include with the request information necessary to support the 21 grounds on which the employer contests the temporary cease and desist or-22 der.

1 “(9) An administrative law judge of the Bureau of Labor and Industries
2 shall schedule a hearing to take place within 30 days of receipt of the re-
3 quest by the commissioner.

4 “(10) The administrative law judge shall prepare and issue an order
5 within 30 days of the close of the hearing. The order issued by the adminis-
6 trative law judge shall be a final order subject to appeal under ORS 183.480 7 to 183.497.

8 “(11) For any proceeding conducted under this section, a court may award 9 attorney fees to the employer under ORS 20.105, 182.090 or 183.497.”.
