WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Allows county, by ordinance or resolution, to exempt first $250,000 of assessed value of homesteads of surviving spouses of a fire service professional or police officer killed in the line of duty. Requires surviving spouse to remain unmarried in order to qualify for exemption. Applies exemption to all ad valorem property taxes imposed by all taxing jurisdictions on the homestead. Defines homestead as real or personal property that is an owner-occupied primary residence and tax lot upon which the dwelling is located. Requires surviving spouse seeking exemption to file application with county assessor by required date and on form prescribed by Department of Revenue. Requires specific information to be included on application. Takes effect on 91st day following adjournment sine die.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The measure as amended allows but does not require counties to provide an exemption. As the measure is permissive, no direct revenue impact exists.

According to the Oregon fallen police and firefighter memorials, since 1970 about 70 police officers and 55 fire service professionals have died in the line of duty. Since 1995, the respective numbers are about 25 police officers and 30 fire service professionals.

On average, the ad valorem property tax imposed upon $250,000 in assessed value would be about $4,000.
