

I am writing to express my support for this bill which is to be voted on tomorrow. My understanding is that it has significant benefits to people that need to be rehabilitated and not just marginalized and punished as they have been for so long.