

"It is our view that HOA restrictions requiring watering of lawns during drought conditions should be suspended whenever a government official, at any level, requests voluntary compliance with watering reduction or suspension. It would then be up to each homeowner as to whether or not they would comply with the voluntary measures to conserve water."

Louise and Burt Bogart
5862 Fountainhead Street,
Salem, Oregon 97306