

Representative Krieger,

I feel very strongly that the Portland activists pushing for a massive increase in the minimum wage don't live in the real world. In my community, I know of no shop, restaurant or business that can afford that kind of hike and not lay off employees or cut jobs. I hope the Legislature shows some common sense about this.

Thank you for listening.
Tom Burdett