

Is it my imagination, or is this supposed to force employers to pay the minimum wage that counties have determined is illegal to impose upon them without providing funding? Do you really think this is a good idea in terms of how the legislature and the counties interact? Are you thinking this will avoid a lawsuit or just escalate the hostility that you have already created? I would give it careful consideration if you are using this as a power play against the counties by punishing the employers.

Irene Gilbert
2310 Adams Ave.
La Grande, Or. 97850
email: ott.irene@frontier.com