Vote:

Yeas: 9 - Barnhart, Bentz, Davis, Helm, Johnson, Lininger, Nosse, Smith Warner, Whitsett

Prepared By: Chris Allanach, Senior Economist

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Moves the sunset date for the tax credit for University Venture Development Fund contributions from January 1, 2016 to January 1, 2022. Increases the annual taxpayer credit cap from $50,000 to $600,000 and creates a three year carryforward. Maintains the existing program cap of $8.4M but reorganizes how it is allotted across the universities.

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

- The need for capital during the early stages of product commercialization
- The impact on jobs
- The mechanics of how the tax credit works

EFFECT OF COMMITTEE AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

This tax credit was created by the Legislature in 2005. Taxpayers who contribute to a Public University Venture Development Fund are allowed a tax credit equal to the 60% of the contribution. The credit is taken equally over three years up to $50,000 per year with no carryforward. It sunset on January 1, 2016.
