LECC Annual Report

At a snapshot glance

Annual Report Findings

Things that we reflected on about our process and the data we received.

Annual Report Findings

- Huge increase in participation from law enforcement
- Some agencies had issues in filling out Oregon State Police's form correctly
- District Attorney participation remained the same
- Annual report is due BEFORE complaints are due
- Data being received varied

Annual Report Findings

- Very few agencies sent us copies of their policy on profiling
- Many agencies have yet to report for 2015 and 2016
- 19 trainings held in 2017. A total of 337 law enforcement professionals attended these trainings in 2017 from 67 different agencies.

Goals

Things we will be working on the rest of 2018 and in 2019

LECC Goals for 2019

- More outreach to District Attorneys' offices
- More general broad outreach to the public
- New website, logo, brochures
- Develop a communication plan to seek 2015 and 2016 complaints from law enforcement agencies that have not done so.

LECC Goals for 2019

- LECC will discuss with OSP potential refinement ideas to the reporting forms, instructions, and an example template.
- Monitor feedback from revised training curriculum for areas of improvement
- Start vetting newly drafted curriculum
- Recruit more trainers

Complaints

Quick snapshot of complaints

2017 Complaints

- Significant decline in people following through on complaints
- Out of 170, there were 129 agencies (76%) in 2017 that reported to the LECC on whether they had complaints or not.
- 20 agencies that reported receiving a profiling complaint
- total of 43 known profiling complaints in Oregon
