Public Hearing and Work Session

SB 148
Makes technical changes in Oregon tax statutes.

Public Hearing

SB 149 A
Provides that property of limited liability company qualifies for property tax exemption or special assessment if limited liability company is wholly owned by nonprofit corporations or public bodies and property, if held directly by each nonprofit corporation owner of limited liability company, would qualify for such exemption or special assessment.

HB 3192 A
Directs Housing and Community Services Department to provide funds to assist first-time home buyers from low income households through programs administered by department and grants to eligible nonprofit organizations, housing authorities and local governments.

Subsequent Referral(s) to Ways and Means
