About Target

Target Corporation is the second-largest general merchandise retailer in America. Target has a global presence with headquarters in Minneapolis, sourcing offices around the world and more than 340,000 team members in nearly 30 countries. Target is ranked No. 38 on the Fortune 500 list of largest companies, and is the sixth-largest Fortune 500 employer in the United States.

Target is an upscale discount retailer that provides high quality, on-trend merchandise at attractive prices in more than 1,800 clean, guest-friendly stores. More than 1,000 Target stores have been recently remodeled to include an expanded fresh food layout.

Target also operates 38 distribution facilities across the United States to support our stores. Target's online business, Target.com, is complemented by rapidly expanding mobile and web solutions that offer our guests a seamless shopping experience.

At Target, our determination to fulfill the needs and fuel the potential of our guests is leading us to solutions that drive both business and social value. Supporting communities through giving has always been a cornerstone of our business and a belief that guides so many of our decisions. Since 1946, Target has given 5 percent of our profit back to the communities we serve— today, that's $4 million per week. Volunteerism and service also continue to be an integral part of how we make an impact.
