

I am writing to express my support for HB2004. No-cause eviction is cruel, dehumanizing, and destabilizing. Secure housing is a fundamental need. Without it, people cannot expect to function well in employment, family relationships, and other aspects of civilized society. The tragic results of no-cause eviction are needless stress leading to sheer panic, and ultimately homelessness.

Thank you,
Emily Calkins