

This bill will have the opposite effect than intended as many landlord's who own individual houses will take them off the rental market and sell them. Fewer rental properties will be built in Oregon.