

To whom it may concern,

I am a property manager and I disagree with this measure. It is going to hurt the rental industry. As for taking away no cause notices I also think this is wrong. It is no different than a tenant giving their notice to move we are just giving the same thing but we have to give them 3 months instead of a month that the tenants get to give. Why is it all one sided. If the tenant has been in the unit over a year they should have to give us a 3 months' notice to us so we can prepare to get it rented. Why should we have to pay to relocate a tenant. If we are giving them notice to move there is a reason for that. I do not believe this is fair to the owners or property managers. Please consider not passing this it is the right thing to do.

Thank you,

Mary Hill
