

I am writing to request you support HB 2004.

The rental market where I live, Portland, has gotten insane and it is driving out the middle and lower class. Oregonians deserve to have security in their housing and know that they can afford their rent and their situation is stable. That is not currently the case and it isn't right.

Please support HB 2004

Carrie Wallace

Sent from my iPhone