

Forgive me, but before you implement new programs and costs in order to pay for individuals in this state illegally, wouldn't it be a good idea to balance the state budget? We already are likely to lose federal funding due to snubbing our nose at the president. It seems to me this bill is likely to backfire when you start asking for federal funds to defy the federal government.

Irene Gilbert