

----- Forwarded message -----

From: Louise Rumer <mizrumer@gmail.com>

Date: Sat, Mar 4, 2017 at 8:51 AM

Subject: Home childcare is important

Hello,

I am writing to express my concern over home daycare bans in HOA communities. The state already heavily regulates home daycares so they are regulated and inspected regularly. Affordable childcare can be difficult to find with waiting lists at childcare centers and preschools. Home daycares provide an affordable option for parents and there is no need to ban them from some of the planned communities.

Thank you for your time,
Louise Rumer