

As an Oregonian and parent of a middle school child in public school, I am writing to support SB 280, which funds the work to create and tell our inclusive history. Real history can be painful; however, truth is necessary to our healing and growth as a people and a state. Without the resources to change our existing curricula, this necessary action won't be viable.

Thank you,
Alison Goldstein
Portland, 97215

Sent from Alison's phone