

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to express my support for HB 2927. The Founders saw fit to allow each state to choose their own electors. It makes sense for Oregon to award its electors in a way that would ensure that the person who earns the most votes wins. Every other elected office in the United States (that I am aware of) is determined that way, and the presidency should be, too.

Thank you,
Alex Johnson