

Dear members of the House Rules Committee:

I am of the opinion that the Electoral College should be either abolished or modified so the candidate receiving the most popular vote in all 50 states, Washington, D.C. and US territories becomes President of the USA.

Please do what you can to make this happen.

It is the most democratic way to determine who should lead our country.

Best regards,

Dr. Karmen Schmidt
Oregon City