

please support HB 2927.

Our recent presidential election demonstrated how important it is to change our system to a popular vote. I find it extremely disheartening to know that my vote seems to not count because of where I choose to live in this country. Although I encouraged many young people to vote for their first time, they now also feel it pointless to participate when only the Electoral vote makes the final decision. Time to change!

Jackey Jones