

I am writing to ask you to support the National Popular Vote proposal (SB823). The candidate who gets the most votes should become President. Electing the President by popular vote is the right way to do it.

If the President were chosen by all the people of the country, candidates would have to pay attention to us. I urge you to support nationwide popular election of the president (SB823).

Thank you,
Jacqueline LaDue