

Dear Chair Clem,

I don't grow crops but I eat food and the cost is already too high on my budget (social security) let the ODA do their job and don't impose any more cost to our groceries. If the USDA and the other safety organizations say these seeds and crops are safe then let it be! We don't need any more regulations in our state!

Sincerely,

Joyce Nelson
3040 Ranchero Rd
Glendale, OR 97442
page1197@hotmail.com