EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

BACKGROUND:

Senator Alan Bates was born on March 17, 1945, in Seattle, Washington to his parents Curtis and Ruth Bates. Senator Bates graduated from Everett High School in 1963 and then served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. Following his service in the US Army, Senator Bates attended and graduated from the College of Osteopathic Medicine in Kansas City, Missouri. During his career as a physician, Senator Bates excelled in patient-centered care and maintained a family medical practice in Southern Oregon for more than 30 years. Additionally, Senator Bates served as the Chief of Medicine at Rogue Regional Medical Center and Providence Medical Center, and was on the board of directors of Asante Physician Partners. A founder of modern healthcare in Oregon, Senator Bates served on and chaired the Health Services Commission where he worked to develop the methodology for the Oregon Health Plan.

In 2000, after 10 years of dutiful service on the Eagle Point School Board, Senator Bates became a member of the Oregon House of Representatives where he worked to preserve the Oregon Health Plan by working across the aisle and cultivating bipartisan consensus. Senator Bates was subsequently elected to the Oregon Senate in 2004, and became known for his role in creating the Oregon Health Authority and guiding Oregon's Health System Transformation. During his time as a member of the Oregon Senate, Senator Bates made great efforts to help working class Oregonians have a chance to prosper and to ensure a healthy, livable planet for future generations.

Senator Bates was a son, father, husband, grandfather, friend, statesman, doctor, champion of the environment, hero to strangers in need and master fly fisherman. Throughout his life, and through his work, Senator Bates improved the lives of millions of individuals and set the ultimate example of what a caring doctor can truly accomplish.

SCR 7 honors and celebrates the remarkable life and achievements of Senator Alan Bates and expresses gratitude for his service to the Legislative Assembly and all Oregonians.
