

Maybe we should be spending our time defining GE. Anytime you get an immunization you are genetically modifying yourself. Hybrid seeds are genetically modified. To make a blanket statement and say all GE seeds are bad is wrong. Allowing every city and county to control what is planted is also wrong. We don't tell other businesses how to operate and what they can and can not sell or produce so why agriculture?

Respectfully
Kristen Domes
Cloverdale Farms Inc.