

I live in Bend, Oregon

I understand this legislation:

HB 2739 would protect farmers and communities from contamination by genetically engineered crops by holding patent holders responsible.

I trust you will vote to support this legislation. Farmers who are trying to produce wholesome produce should not be in a position to face harassment by the irresponsible use of GMOs.

Fran Greenlee
Bend, Oregon