

Dear Channa Newell,

As you may know, HB 2739 would protect farmers and communities from contamination by genetically engineered crops by holding patent holders responsible. At the present time farmers can be sued by GMO companies even when they are not growing GMO crops, but simply having GMO seeds drift onto their farms. Please vote for this important legislation. Also please distribute this comment among other committee members.

Thank you

Richard Pasichnyk
2132 W 14th Ct
Eugene, OR 97402