

HB 2739 would protect farmers and communities from contamination by genetically engineered crops by holding patent holders responsible.

Please show your support for local Oregon farmers through this bill.