

This bill centers around choice for farmers to protect what they plant if they do not want to go GMO with crops or continually buying patent protected GMO seed. Further, if they go non-GMO they need recourse if their non-GMO crops are contaminated by GMO crops. Support providing financial recourse for these farmers.