

I'm writing to urge you to support HB 2469 to store farmers' rights to locally address their diverse agricultural needs. It is vital that family farmers are protected from the risks of GMO crops: Their livelihood depends on this: the health and well being of all life in Oregon depends on healthy food production and sources.

Thank you for your consideration of my concern,
Patricia Browning
Ashland, OR 97520