

I believe it very important to reduce the use of toxic chemicals in food production, and the use of GMOs has generally been in conflict with that kind of clean agriculture. I therefore believe in doing whatever we can do to allow Oregon's agriculture communities to have legal resources to allow localities to protect themselves from over-use of chemicals that would drift to their land.

I understand that HB2469 can be of help toward that. I hope so.

--Ed Averill

Beaverton, OR