BACKGROUND:

Under ORS 166.065 (1)(a)(A), the crime of harassment is committed when a person intentionally harasses or annoys another person by subjecting the other person to offensive physical contact. Ordinarily a Class B misdemeanor, punishable by a maximum of six months' imprisonment and a $2,500 fine, House Bill 2988 elevates the offense to a Class A misdemeanor, punishable by a maximum of one year's imprisonment and a $6,250 fine, when the crime is committed in the immediate presence of, or is witnessed by, a minor child or stepchild of, or a minor child residing with, the defendant or the victim. Under current law, the crimes of Assault in the Fourth Degree and Strangulation can be elevated from a Class A misdemeanor to a Class C felony under identical circumstances.

House Bill 2988 also classifies this elevated form of harassment as a person Class A misdemeanor for purposes of the defendant's criminal history under the felony sentencing guidelines.
